

15,000 Summer Enrollment Seen

Enrollment for summer session is expected to hit from 12,000 to 15,000, according to an estimate made yesterday by Thomas A. H. Teeter, director of summer session.

A large number of courses have been added to last summer's curricula to provide for the increased enrollment, Teeter said. Almost 50 courses have been added, largely in the Institute of Technology, since publication of the summer session bulletin, he added.

Names of these courses will be published in the official daily bulletin.

Teeter expects no trouble in adequate instruction of students due to the increased enrollment because the number of sections for crowded courses has been increased also.

From a census of Technology students, Teeter said, it was learned that 75 per cent of the veterans now enrolled in that college expect to return for the summer session. A sampling of Arts students revealed about the same percentage, Teeter said.

The estimated enrollment for this summer will double the 6,000 to 7,000 registration figure of last summer.

Students are advised to register for summer session as early as possible, Teeter said. Registration for off-campus persons will be held June 17 and 18 in the University Field house.

Private Stores to Supply Vets' Books

By Richard E. Kobak

Private bookstores will resume the sale of books and supplies to veteran trainees starting summer session according to a joint statement issued yesterday by University officials, representatives of private bookstores and the Veterans club.

The announcement was made by Harold D. Smith, manager of University bookstores; L. R. Lunden, University comptroller; Harris Baxter, chairman of the Veterans club bookstore committee.

The plan was made possible by the issuance of veterans administration circular 47 last month which provided that VA would pay the 10 per cent cost of handling veterans' vouchers.

Cost of handling the vouchers had been a sore point with private bookstores and had led to their refusal to sell books to campus veterans last January.

The new plan calls for the veteran to give his course list to the bureau of veteran affairs when he registers and to designate the bookstore he wishes to patronize.

A journal voucher for the veteran's supplies will then be filled out and sent to the designated bookstore and the veteran will be able to pick up his books and supplies as soon as his order is filled.

The system is the same as that which has been used in University bookstores.

Comment on the move was universally favorable. F. S. Taylor, manager of Perine's bookstore, declared, "The plan should facilitate the matter for the veteran. With five bookstores selling books and supplies to veterans instead of two there should be a minimum of congestion."

Taylor predicted some difficulty in obtaining supplies in time for summer session. "We would have ordered more heavily if we had known of the plan sooner," Taylor said.

Supplies on hand, however, may be sufficiently large to handle veterans' business, Taylor believes.

Lyman W. Newlin, manager of the Minnesota bookstore, declared the plan to be "quite satisfactory." Supplies of books for summer session will be larger than they were for winter quarter, Newlin said. "But supplies will not be so good fall quarter."

Further difficulty in supplying veterans with books was seen by Newlin, however. "Less than one per cent of book orders necessary for fall quarter have been received from the faculty. It is necessary for us to know what books instructors intend to use if we are to be able to order in advance," he said.

A meeting of bookstore representatives will be held with Malcolm M. Willey, vice president in charge of academic administration, today to draft proposals to urge faculty members to turn in their book orders soon, Newlin added.

Smith declared that the plan is "the best thing that has happened yet to solve the problem of supplying veterans with books and supplies."

Baxter said the club is "very satisfied with the plan. It is what campus veterans have wanted since private bookstores refused to deal with veterans last January."

A poll of veterans at the last general membership meeting of the club showed that campus veterans were 94 per cent in favor of private bookstores again selling books to veterans, Baxter said.

Second Spring Recital to Be Given Today

The second senior spring recital of the music department will be given by Marlis East, violinist, and Anna Marie Haraldson, pianist, at 8:30 p.m. today in the Music auditorium.

Miss East, accompanied by Joyce Byers, will play Saint-Saens' Concerto in B minor, Bloch's "Baal Shem," "La Gitana" by Kreisler, Milhaud's "Corcovado" and "Danse Espagnole" by de Falla-Kreisler.

Miss Haraldson will play Haydn's Sonata in E flat, "Serenade" by Strauss-Gieseking, Still's "Summerland," Copland's "Le Chat et la Souris" and the Dohnanyi Rhapsodie in F sharp minor.

Bill West, Esquires to Play At Semi-Formal Prom Friday

The first formal senior prom since the start of the war will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Friday at the Hotel Radisson. Music will be furnished by Rob Elliott's Esquires and Bill West's orchestra.

This prom, which will be open only to seniors and their dates, will have a cabaret theme and a grand march. Tickets will be $3 a couple and will go on sale tomorrow at tables in the Union and Folwell hall.

Because many of the men have had difficulty in securing tuxedos, the committee has decided that men need not dress formal if they can't get the necessary clothes.

Physics Profs Receive $2,500 Research Grants

Dr. John T. Tate, research professor of physics, and Dr. Alfred O. C. Nier, professor of physics, have received grants of $2,500 each from the Research corporation. It is a non-profit organization which supports research with the profits received from patents given to it.

The grants are to be used in the study of the disintegration of molecules by electronic bombardment and for work on the mass spectrograph.

Leaders of the march, all graduating seniors, have been chosen by a special committee on the basis of leadership in their class all during their college career.

The first couple will be Harvey Dow, prom chairman, and Harriett Schaffer, senior class president. Tom Clareson, Ski-U-Mah editor, and Nancy Keely, member of Mortar Board will march next.

Chaperones will be Dean and Mrs. Richard L. Kozelka, Dean and Mrs. Edmund G. Williamson and Dean and Mrs. J. W. Buchta.

Medic Group Meets Today

Dr. John R. Paine, Minneapolis physician, and Dr. Thomas J. Kinsella, Minneapolis thoracic surgeon, will be speakers this morning at the ninety-third annual session of the Minnesota State Medical association.

Afternoon sessions today will be devoted to discussions on obstetrics for general practitioners. Speakers will be Dr. Russell J. Moe, of Duluth; Dr. M. Edward Davis, of the department of obstetrics and gynecology at the Chicago Lying-in hospital, Dr. R. W. Koucky, Minneapolis.

President J. L. Morrill will address the association annual banquet at 7 p.m. today in the St. Paul hotel.

'Mimeosota' Daily Dies

Printed Paper Takes Over

THE "MIMEOSOTA" DAILY's final edition was completed late Friday when Richard E. Kobak, Arts freshman, locked up the man-powered presses, and publication went back to Commercial Press.

The Minnesota Daily resumes publication today as a printed newspaper after being a two-page mimeographed paper for 12 issues, since May 3.

Members of the Minneapolis Typographical union, Local 42 AFL, ended their 17-day strike on commercial print shops last Friday night when they voted to accept the offer of Graphic Arts Industry, Inc. Wage boosts were given all along the line.

Efforts to move The Daily into a shop unaffected by the strike failed. However, the editor and business manager decided to continue publication by using the mimeograph facilities of the National Scholastic Press association in Murphy hall.

Reporters had to cut down stories and write them in narrow typewriter margins. Copyreaders puzzled over new type faces and counted new headlines.

Other staff members cut stencils and learned how to use a stylus. Daily reporter Richard E. Kobak, Arts freshman, supervised the first press run on the mimeograph and initiated other staff members into its use.

The first issue was begun at 5 p.m. May 3 and was finished at 4:45 a.m. the next day. On another day machinery difficulties kept the night staff until 5:30 a.m. The last week, however, night staffs became more experienced and a record was set one night when the job was finished at 11:05 p.m.

The "World's Largest College Circulation" dropped to 10,000 daily during the strike. Usual number printed is about 18,000.

'Role of Sex' Is Marriage Course Topic for Today

"The Role of Sex" will be the lecture topic at the Ag campus marriage course to be held at 7 p.m. today in the main lounge of Ag Union. Separate lectures will be given for men and women students.

Speakers are Dr. Starke E. Hathaway, associate professor of neuropsychiatry, who will speak to the women, and Mrs. Clem Elliott, former instructor of sociology at Carleton, who will address the men.

Following the lectures will be a discussion of basic attitudes and ideas in regard to sex relations before and after marriage.

The marriage course is being sponsored by the Ag campus AWS, YMCA and YWCA.

State College Meet To Be Held Today

Representatives of Minnesota colleges will meet at 10 a.m. today in the Center for Continuation Study to attend the annual meeting of the Association of Minnesota Colleges.

The program will consist of a discussion of the following topics: post-high school education in Minnesota, problems of admission and the evaluation of various bases of selection, financial relations of colleges with veteran administrations, surplus government property, a report of the committee on high school relations and a report of the committee on legislative matters.

President J. L. Morrill will speak at the association luncheon and election of officers will be held during the afternoon session.

Castell, Barry to Give KUOM Programs Today

Alburey Castell, professor of philosophy, will deliver the third talk in a series of nine, and Ken Barry, KUOM program manager, will initiate a new program today over the University radio station.

"Every Man His Own Moralist" is the title of the Castell program scheduled from 7 to 7:30 p.m. and "Library Headlines," a new St. Paul public library review of current books, will be presented by Barry at 1 p.m.

'Friends Church' to Be YW Discussion Topic

"The Friends Church" is the topic for discussion at a meeting of the YWCA Inter-religious group at 12:30 p.m. today in room 346 Union.

Speaker will be Mrs. Irene Stranahan, wife of the former minister of the Friends church. All students may attend. The group will visit the church next Sunday.

Student Federalists To Plan Rally Today

The Student Federalists will hold a meeting for members only at 3:30 p.m. today in 343 Union to discuss plans for a rally at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in Murphy hall auditorium.

Dr. Alfred O. Nier, professor of physics, will speak on "Implications of the Atomic Bomb" at the rally.

News Service Shuffle Brings 2 New Members

A general reorganization and expansion of University public relations activities has brought two new members to the University News service, Malcolm M. Willey, vice president for academic administration, announced last night.

They are William T. Harris Jr., who will assume general news direction, and Janet Salisbury, who will write stories about students for their home-town papers.

T. E. Steward, present director of the news service, will become University editor. In addition to publishing Minnesota Chats, the Calendar of Events, and other periodicals, Steward will prepare the President's report.

Willey said editing a new campus organ for faculty and staff distribution also may be added to Steward's duties.

Harris now is on terminal leave as a lieutenant colonel in the army air forces. A graduate of the University School of Journalism class of 1932, Harris served as a teaching assistant here for one year.

He was president of the campus chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, and won the Sigma Delta Chi scholarship award in 1932. From 1934 to 1941 he worked on the Mankato Free Press. When called to active duty as an intelligence officer for the army, he was news editor of that publication.

Miss Salisbury, also a graduate of the University School of Journalism, is a former member of the Minneapolis Daily Times staff. As an undergraduate she was president of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism sorority and a member of the Board of Publications.

Harris and Miss Salisbury will work under W. L. Nunn, director of University relations. Their office is in room 309 Northrop auditorium.

Plant Club to Meet

Professor Alvin Larson, of the University department of agricultural botany, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Plant Industry club at 8 p.m. today in 202 Agronomy building, Ag campus. His topic will be, "2-4-D Weed-killer." Don Nelson, Ag sophomore, is in charge of the program.

Smooth Session Today

All smooth dancing with instructions by Al Wiklund is the program for the Beginners' Smooth Session from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. today in the Union main ballroom. Admission is 10 cents.

'Favorite Teacher'

Education Day Queen Will Be Chosen at Tea

Who would you like for your future teacher? Turn in her name to room 202 Burton hall before 3 p.m. tomorrow. The only qualification is that she be a student in the College of Education. She will be judged at a tea to be held at 4 p.m. tomorrow in the Union.

Education day, which is the first such celebration in many years, will officially begin at 1:30 p.m. Thursday in the Museum of Natural History auditorium. S. A. Hamrin, professor of education at Northwestern university, will speak on "Unlisted Assets."

At 3:30 p.m. at University high school a student-faculty kitenball game is scheduled. In case of rain, the students and faculty will match wits in a quiz game.

At 5 p.m. in the Union main ballroom there will be an informal reception to be followed by a dinner at 6 p.m. Tickets for the dinner and education day buttons are on sale in Burton hall, from education students and in University High school.

Eunice Haried, Education senior is general chairman for the day, and Proctor Maynard, assistant in education, is faculty adviser.

Dr. Friedman to Speak At Hillel Luncheon

"Government Regulations of Economic Activity in a Free Society," will be the topic of a speech by Dr. Milton Friedman, associate professor of economics and statistics, at the Hillel luncheon forum at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Dr. Friedman has served as principal economist of the United States treasury and has held the position of associate director of statistics and research group of the war research division.

320 Feet Gained

Ag Union Gets Space; Ends Long Struggle

A seven-year struggle for 320 square feet of space has ended and the Ag Union now boasts one more room in Dairy hall for Union activities.

The new room, located on the ground floor and opening into the game room, is now ready for use, Gordon Starr, Ag Union director, said yesterday.

"In fact," Starr said, "it has already been used by two or three organizations. The YMCA held a meeting in it before there was even paint on the walls."

Formerly used as storage space by the department of buildings and grounds, the room is being re-decorated at an estimated cost of $400. As yet, the floor has not been tiled and very little furniture has been moved into the room.

Eventually it will hold all activities files, two office desks and enough chairs to accommodate small meeting groups.

Reservations to use the office must be cleared through the Ag Union director's office. Groups may have its use from 11:15 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and from 3:30 to 10 p.m. The rest of the time is open to individual use.

Arrangements to meet in the new office space between 5:30 and 7 p.m. must be made by special permission from Mr. Starr.

Brahms, Beethoven On Listening Hour

Beethoven's Leonore overture No. 3 will open the music listening hour from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today in the Union Terrace room.

The Lento from Bach's Suite No. 3 in D major will be played next, to be followed by Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn" and the Strauss tone poem, "Death and Transfiguration."

Concluding the program will be the Symphony No. 6 in B minor by Tchaikowsky.

Gophers Set for Ft. Snelling Nine

By Bob Schabert

Winners of 11 games out of the 15 they have played this season, the Minnesota baseball team will be host to the Fort Snelling All-Stars this afternoon at Northrop field. Game time is set for 4 p.m.

The All-Stars are composed of Japanese-Americans who have played college and AA ball throughout the country, and many who have participated in ETO and Pacific Allied military service.

They won 20 out of 26 games played last year. Among their wins was a triumph over Spud Chandler, New York Yankees' ace in a game played at Rochester. They have a record of nine victories and two losses this season, having defeated Macalaster and Hamline of the Minnesota college conference.

Their battery of pitcher Harry Kitamura and catcher John Uyehara, participated in a game against the American league All-Stars in Hawaii in 1941.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Wisconsin	7	2	.778
Illinois	6	2	.750
Michigan	4	2	.667
MINNESOTA	5	3	.625
Iowa	5	3	.625
Indiana	3	3	.500
Ohio State	3	4	.429
Northwestern	2	4	.333
Purdue	2	4	.333
Chicago	0	10	.000

The Gophers rest in fourth place after splitting their third consecutive weekend series. Following the non-conference game today the team will have two more conference series to play before the season closes.

Largely responsible for the Gophers' present status has been the strong right arm of Don Tepel. He held Wisconsin, present league leaders, to five hits to help Gophers to a 6-5 win May 11 and this past Saturday gave up only four hits as Minnesota handed Michigan its second conference loss in three years, 4-1.

Leading the hitting department have been the lusty bats of center fielder Ole Lucken, right fielder Charles Brink and catcher Stu Olson. Lucken continues to lead the team in hitting, runs batted in and total bases. Close on his heels are Brink, Dick Rediske and Bob Johnson.

Following behind Tepel in effectiveness has been Arwed Henning, who has been used chiefly in relief roles all year. In 14 innings of relief chucking, he has allowed 12 hits and fanned 15 men.

Religion Council To Honor Four

A tea will honor four new members of the Minnesota Council of Religions at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Lutheran Student association house, 1813 University avenue S.E.

They are Waldo Keck, University YMCA; Mrs. Percy Lowe, Christian Science representative; William Larsen, LSA; Chaplain George Metcalf, Canterbury club.

Newman Meeting Today

The Rev. Leonard Cowley, director of Newman foundation, will hold his philosophy class at 3:30 p.m. today in the Newman hall library, 1228 Fourth street S.E.

Golf Season Nears End; Irish Here Saturday

Two matches, one dual and the other triangular, are all that remain on the schedule for the Minnesota golf team before the Big Ten conference meet which will be held May 30 and June 1 on the University of Minnesota course.

The dual meet will take place this coming Saturday when the Gophers play host to a strong Notre Dame links squad.

The triangular clash will involve Minnesota, Northwestern and Iowa on May 30 and will afford all three teams an excellent opportunity to sharpen their games for the conference tourney beginning the following day.

After the conference meet, the linksmen will be out of regular competition until the National Collegiate tournament on June 27, 28 and 29 at Princeton, N. J.

In their last two matches the Gophers have gone down to defeat at the hands of Iowa, 15½ to 11½, and last Sunday it was the Golden Valley Golf club which beat them in a return engagement, 34-29.

Sorority Swim Scheduled Today

The annual sorority swimming meet will be held at 8 p.m. today in Norris gymnasium in the large pool.

Form swimming, diving and 25-yard relays will be open to teams and individuals.

The sweatshirt relay, in which contestants race the length of the pool four times wearing sweatshirts, can be entered by a four-woman team from each sorority.

Swimmers must bring their health-rating cards.

Snow Week Filing Open

Filing for general chairman of Snow week opens today in 131 Union. Filing will close Saturday noon. All students are eligible.

Illinois' Defending Champions Next on Gopher Track Slate

By Bill Smith

Coach Leo Johnson and his potent Illinois track team will make their first of two appearances in Minneapolis Saturday when they meet the Gophers in a dual meet. Their visit will be a warmup for the NCAA meet here June 21 and 22.

Jim Kelly's Gopher tracksters, winners of dual clashes for the last three weekends, will be short-enders in Saturday's meet with the defending Big Ten champs from Champaign.

The Illini have been victorious in every meet in which they appeared this spring, including the Penn relays, and are fresh from a dual win over Michigan last weekend, 80-42.

The Gophers' third straight win came over Indiana Saturday, 71½-57½.

Johnson will bring six men who can almost guarantee firsts for him in eight events, so it will be up to the Gophers to garner most of the place and show positions if they are to earn their fourth straight for this spring.

Gopher freshman Harry Cooper, who has yet to meet his better in the pole vault, may do just that Saturday when Bob Phelps competes against him. Phelps is defending NCAA pole vault champion.

Sprint mainstays of the powerful Illinois squad are Bill Mathis, who has run the 100-yard dash in 9.7 seconds, and Herb McKenley, who has done the 220 in :20.8 and the quarter mile in :46.7.

Also out to crack Big Ten records this week and next week when the Illini play host to the rest of the Western conference schools in the conference meet will be Bob Rehberg, who has run the half mile in 1:57.6 and the mile in 4:24; George Walker, who had a :23.2 time in the 220-yard low hurdles against Michigan last week; Dwight Eddleman, who has high jumped six feet, six and seven-eighths inches during the season.

Those marks are all better than any the Gophers have recorded this spring but Jim Kelly may turn up some firsts when he sends Fortune Gordien into the weight events and Lloyd LaMoise into the broad jump.

Gordien continued his winning ways against the Hoosiers last week, tossing the discus 135 feet 10 inches from the circle and putting the shot 49 feet 5½ inches.

LaMoise, unheard of until he took a close second to Wisconsin's Lloyd LaBeach two weeks ago, won the broad jump with a 22-foot, 11-inch leap.

Intra-Squad Game to End Grid Practice

Football practice on Northrop field last night was confined to a half-hour blocking drill as the spring training Minnesota gridders open their last week of workouts of the current season.

The dismissal of the squad came as a surprise although it may have been prompted by several injuries sustained last Saturday as well as the coaching staff's desire to have all the squad in top physical condition for the final scrimmage of the season.

The squad has been divided into two teams, the Maroons and Golds, and will give local football fans their last look at what will be next fall's grid material. The contest will begin after the track meet Saturday and should be the hardest fought game of the spring series.

As usual the injury roster is composed mainly of backfield men. Fullback Bob Bach is out with a bruised shoulder while speed-merchant wingback, Glen Pullens, went out of the scrimmage last Saturday with an injury as did halfback Harry Elliot.

During the last few scrimmages Elliot probably has shown the most progress in the backfield ranks. Although small, he has proven to be a fast and clever sideline runner.

Herman Frickey, right halfback for the Gophers in 1941, is out of the navy and will return to campus next fall. He still has one year of competition remaining and is expected to play a major role in next fall's grid wars.

Filing Open for Radio Affiliations Committee Today

Filing for positions on the radio affiliations committee opens today in the Foundation office, 349 Union and will continue through Friday. Office hours are from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

A tentative schedule of 26 programs has been set for next year to cover the major events on campus. The programs, 15 minutes in length, will be planned, written and produced by students assisted by an advisory board of faculty members.

Positions open on the committee are in script writing, producing and publicity. Students making application should state whether or not they will be able to work during the summer in planning the programs.

U Radio Guild Election

The annual election of the officers of the University Radio Guild will be held at 7:30 p.m. today in Studio 1, Eddy hall. Plans for the summer broadcasting schedule will be discussed.
