Duluth--- Two UMD senior art majors will display their artistic creations at a special show starting Monday at UMD's Tweed Gallery.

Dan Hedman, Virginia, and Stephen Ames, Duluth, will be on hand to greet friends and gallery patrons at their special opening at 8 p.m. Monday (Nov. 4) in the Studio Gallery.

Their show, which will run through Sunday, Nov. 10, will feature paintings, photography, prints, silk screens, and some sculpture and ceramics.

Theirs is the first of the three senior art shows which will be featured in November at Tweed Gallery.
