DULUTH--High interest in job instructor training has prompted the Lake Superior chapter, American Society of Training Directors, UMD department of industrial education, to co-sponsor a one-day seminar on the UMD campus Tuesday (Nov. 12).

Franklyn Bair, Duluth, chapter president, said today that renewed demand for this type of training in the Duluth region occasions the session.

Joseph S. Kopas, Cleveland, training counselor for Republic Steel Corp., will be principal speaker during the seminar, which will open at 8:45 a.m. and continue through 4:30 p.m. at Kirby Student center.

The seminar staff will include Gordon O. Voss, associate professor, industrial education, UMD; Glen L. Welch, Duluth, training supervisor, and Thomas S. Litras, supervisor, safety and works protection, American Steel and Wire division, and Herman J. Gemuenden, director, industrial relations, Oglebay, Norton & Co., all of Duluth.

The seminar is open to members of the chapter and their guests.
