

Senior Week Picnic, Dance Tickets on

Tickets for the senior week events—the senior picnic and the junior-senior ball—go on sale from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. today in the Union ground floor ticket office.

Senior week begins Monday and lasts through May 24.

The "hard times" picnic, scheduled for 5 p.m. Monday, will be the first organized activity. It will be held at Excelsior park.

A dance in the park ballroom will run from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Jimmy Pardue and his five-piece band will play. Casual dress is expected, says Ted DeLancey, senior week chairman.

Picnic tickets at 50 cents will be on sale through Friday.

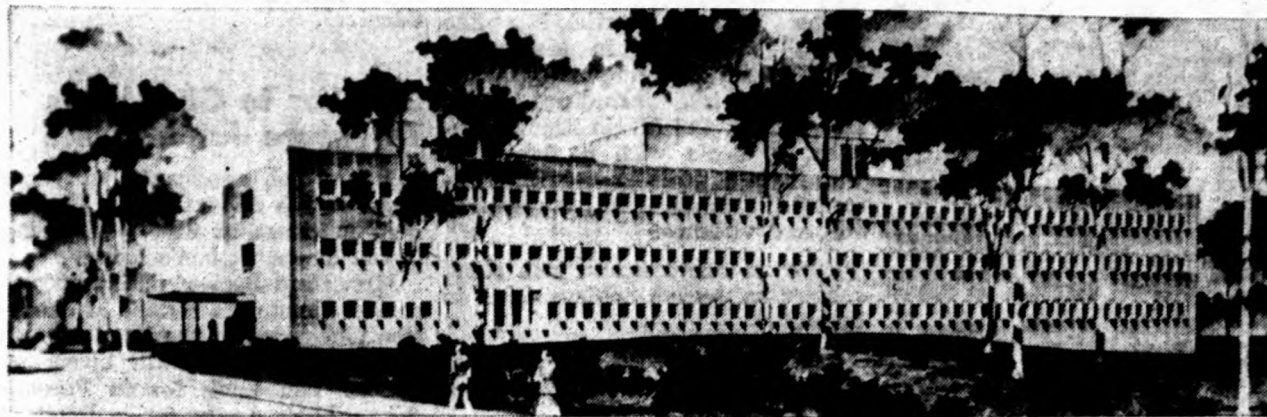

Also scheduled at the picnic and dance is voting for the outstanding instructor award, to be presented May 23 at an alumni-student-faculty coffee hour. Campaigning for "favorite sons" will start at the end of this week.

The junior-senior ball will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. May 24 in the Radisson hotel main ballroom. This is the first year that the annual prom is open to juniors as well as seniors.

Dick Finch's band will play at the ball. Dance tickets are $3 a couple.

FINAL PRELIMINARY plans for the proposed new Ag Union north of Coffey hall were approved last week by the University building committee. Final specifications will be made and construction will start as soon as enrollment figures start rising again. The new Ag Union will be built in three different phases. The first phase will be a long, low structure. The above picture is of the plans for the building when it is completed, three stories with a floor space 180 by 88 feet. The first stage of the building will cost approximately $500,000. It will include a combination cafeteria and recreation space.

'Big Days' 'Cotton Ball' Starts Ag Campus Fete

All-college weekend on Ag campus—Kitchi Geshig—starts tomorrow with a "Cotton Ball" dance at 9 p.m. in the Ag gymnasium. Music will be furnished by the Tony Grise orchestra. Admission is 80 cents.

Kitchi Geshig, Iroquois for "Big days," will last through Saturday evening. Classes on Ag campus will be excused Friday and Saturday.

The Queen of Kitchi Geshig will be named at 10 p.m. at the "Cotton Ball." The five queen candidates, all majoring in home economics, are Jean Barnard, junior; Lois Magnuson, sophomore; Synthia Gray, sophomore; Janet Alstrup, senior; JoAnne Goranson, junior.

The queen will be decided by popularity vote. Students gain the right to vote when they purchase a Kitchi Geshig button, now on sale in the Union. Voting for the queen ends at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

"War party," the assembly at 9 p.m. in Coffey hall auditorium will start Friday's events. The assembly is dedicated to Dean Henry Schmitz who is leaving in June to become president of the University of Washington.

Door prizes consisting of tickets to other Kitchi Geshig events will be given away at the assembly. All-campus tours and open houses and hog showmanship contests will occupy the remainder of the morning.

A bean feed sponsored by the foresters will start at 11:30 a.m. Friday in the cafeteria. Tickets are 85 cents.

"Crystal Revue of '52," the talent show, will be presented at 8 p.m. Friday in Coffey hall auditorium and will be followed by an Ag Union open house and a songfest on the athletic field. Tickets to the "Crystal Revue" are 25 cents.

Kitchi Geshig "Warpath," the all-college weekend parade, will start from Ag campus at 10:50 a.m. Saturday and proceed to Main campus by way of Como avenue. Theme of the parade is a review of Ag campus.

A pit barbecue will be held at 11:30 a.m. Friday on the athletic field. Tickets are 75 cents.

A style show, concert and beef and horse showmanship contests are scheduled for Friday afternoon. There also will be a riding exhibition at 3:30 p.m. on the athletic field. Trick riding, clown acts and jancing horse acts will be performed by Roy Vexall and his Saddle Stars.

Square dancing and ballroom dancing will be on the program at the Final Fling dance at 9 p.m. Saturday in the gym. Ray Winkler's band will provide music. Admission is 80 cents per person.

Tickets for the various events will be on sale starting at noon today at ticket booths in the Ag Union and on the ground floor of the Union.

Free Speech On Decline— Rundquist

By Betty Berg

Unless Americans are willing to fight for principles they will lose the right to be individuals, the field director of the American Civil Liberties union said on campus yesterday.

George Rundquist spoke at "Civil Liberties Today" at the moral issues forum of the student council of religion.

"It is becoming increasingly difficult to express unorthodox views," Rundquist said. "Free speech is the most fundamental of all our rights, since without it we can defend no others."

The Civil Liberties union has, since its establishment in 1920, fought to defend free speech for socialists, rights for labor and academic freedom.

In answer to a question from the audience on academic freedom and the recent non-reappointment of philosophy instructor Forrest O. Wiggins, Rundquist commented, "The union has had a bad time getting facts on the case."

No member of the union actually has been appointed to investigate the situation.

"Universities were formerly places of free discussion, homes for new ideas," Rundquist said. "Now your speakers are screened because students and faculty may be contaminated with new ideas."

"Self-appointed censors think we're too foolish to be exposed to certain ideas," he said. "I, for one, resent it. I'm not that dumb."

Civil Liberties union opposes loyalty oaths, since they mean nothing to communists and offend honest citizens.

He reminded his audience of the rights they possess "against the government."

"These rights are laid down for you in the amendments to the Constitution," Rundquist said. "Congress can make no laws against the right of free speech."

Filing Open for Vannier Nursing Scholarships

Applications for a $100 Vannier scholarship for nurses may be filed until June 8 in the school of nursing office, 125 Medical Science building.

The scholarship, awarded annually by the nurses' student government association at Powell hall, is open to three-year nurses working for degrees, degree nurses taking additional work and nursing students in their last four quarters of school.

Social Forces Control Education—Wiggins

By Myrna Johnson

Education as an institution cannot escape the social forces which surround it, Dr. Forrest O. Wiggins said yesterday.

Wiggins, instructor of philosophy, gave the fourth lecture in the campus Young Progressives of America series, "Peace—Politics and People."

He believes our educators are misdirected—swept up by the social forces so they "beat the drums and blow the bugles" for the dominating force.

"This is an age of smoothies," he said, "and it is in the hands of these smoothies that our education rests today."

"There is almost no representation of labor, women, or minority groups on the boards of regents of universities. Those who control industrial life also control universities," he said.

Wiggins quoted former University of Chicago president Robert Hutchins as saying that universities are becoming highly technical schools and "detention homes for the young."

"We seem to be embarking on a program of using our natural and human resources for destruction rather than for peaceful means," Wiggins said.

Such a program is resulting in a "fear of ourselves" which we have not been able to destroy, he claimed.

Wiggins thinks this fear has been manufactured by certain American leaders to "keep our minds off high taxes, high prices and frozen wages."

He said he sees no hope for socialism in the United States. "We don't fear communism here," he said, "and the communists have never been able to sell their program to Americans."

It is the liberals whom America really fears, he added.

"America is in the dilemma of 'going to war or going broke,'" he said, and added, "there must be another way of living with Russia." He believes the entire economy would collapse if the war program stopped.

"War is a denial of reason," he said. "There can be no education for it, only training."

To alleviate the fear in which America lives, Wiggins said we must change the situation under which we live. "We must create a set of conditions which will guarantee food, clothing, and housing without fear of death or slavery," he said.

Wiggins believes the present age is a crucial time—comparable in some ways to the Renaissance, the Reformation or perhaps the time of the discovery of fire.

He says he thinks it is possible for us now to "realize larger insights and plan and act for humanity as a whole. It is a time of struggle, a time of hope and, I hope for you, a time of joy," he said.

A Phi O Awards 11 Carnival Trophies

Final trophy winners in the Campus Carnival were announced today by Alpha Phi Omega, directors of the carnival.

Winners in the "most money" contest are: dorm division—show, Comstock hall with "Top Banana"; concession, "600" club, "Putt for a Prize." Greek division—show, Kappa Delta-Chi Phi, "Boxing and Specialty Acts"; concession, Zeta Beta Tau with "Win and Duck."

Winners of the trophies for the best concession and shows are: dorm division—show, Comstock, with "Top Banana"; concession, Winchell Co-op, "Refreshments"; Greek division—show, Sigma Alpha Epsilon-Delta Delta Delta, "American in Paris" and concession, Zeta Beta Tau, "Win and Duck."

The winning organizations may obtain their trophies in 203 Union.

French Department, U Theater To Present Moliere Satire

Tickets now are on sale in 200 Folwell for the French play "Le Malade Imaginaire" to be presented May 20 to 24.

The play, by Moliere, centers around a would-be invalid, Argan, who rearranges his whole household to provide treatment for his imaginary ailments. His plans extend to the point of ordering his daughter Angelique to marry a doctor who will give him better home care.

Angelique rebels, but her father insists that she marry the doctor or enter a convent.

Presented by the French department and the University Theater, the play will be directed by David Morgan. Helene Nahas, teaching assistant in romance languages, is French adviser.

Lee Stark, instructor of French at University high school, will play Argan; Bill Hillard, Dr. Diafoirus; Manette Regnier, Angelique; Pierre Matissen, Angelique's lover, Cleante; Mildred Rosenberg, Argan's second wife, Beline; Joanne Shedlov, the maid Toinette.

Performances will be at 8:30 p.m. May 20, 21, 23 and 24 with a matinee at 4 p.m., May 22 in Scott hall student theater. General admission tickets are 50 cents each; high school student tickets cost 30 cents. Tickets also are available from cast members.

'World Crisis' Forum To Hear 4 Viewpoints

Four political viewpoints will be discussed at the last forum of the series, "The United States and the World Crisis," tomorrow.

The forum will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Nicholson hall auditorium, sponsored by the Socialist club.

Presenting the four viewpoints will be:

A. G. Papandreou, professor, school of business administration—conservative democratic; Ralph Ross, professor of general studies—liberal democratic; Dr. Forrest O. Wiggins, instructor of philosophy—socialist; Dr. Grace Carlson, Minnesota organizer for the Socialist Workers party—Marxist.

Questions from the audience will be discussed after forum members present their views.

Y Counseling Seminar

The YWCA camp counseling seminar will meet at 12:30 p.m. tomorrow in 215 Union. The topic for the week is "The Job of a Counselor and Problems Encountered."

"Devastation," one of the dances which will be presented at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow in Northrop auditorium is performed above by Beverly Himmelman, SLA sophomore, Bob Horswell, education senior, and Carol Volkert, SLA sophomore. The convocation program of modern dance numbers will be presented by members of Orchesis, University modern dance society.

Literature Club To Hold Symposium

The Literature club will hold a symposium at 5:15 p.m. today in 107 Folwell.

A discussion entitled "The Meaning of Aeschylus' Oresteia to His Contemporaries" will begin the session. William A. McDonald, associate professor of classical languages, will lead the discussion.

Also on the program is a talk by Frank Wood, associate professor of German, on Hofmannsthal's "Elektra" and Sartre's "Les Mouches." Leon Reisman, lecturer of literature and writing, will speak on O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra" and Jeffers' "Tower Beyond Tragedy."

Gophers Edge Carls, 6-1

DOUG STEENSON, fleet Minnesota center-fielder, successfully steals third base in the fifth inning in Minnesota's 6-1 victory over Carleton yesterday. Ted Smebakken, Carleton third baseman, reaches for catcher Jim Vest's high throw. Steenson was instrumental in the victory as he stole two bases and collected two base hits.

By Perry Galvin
Three Minnesota pitchers held Carleton to four hits and defeated the Carls 6 to 1 at Delta field yesterday.

Thus, the Gophers gained revenge as last season Carleton whipped Minnesota 7 to 4 on the same field.

Ken McGonagle, Allen Andersen, and Paul Giel, the Gopher "big three" had little trouble with the Carleton hitters.

The Carl's lone run was a homer by pitcher Lourie Slocum off Andersen in the seventh inning. Because Andersen pitched the most innings—five—he was credited with the victory.

Minnesota's attack was not over-productive either, collecting but nine hits off starter Slocum and southpaw reliever, Brad Steinberg.

Gene Steiger and Doug Steenson set the pace with two hits apiece. Both of Steiger's blows were solid doubles and thoroughly indicated that he's snapping out of his slump.

It was a well played defensive game as only one error was committed, that by Carleton third baseman Ted Smebakken.

Minnesota put four hits together to take a 2 to 0 lead in the second. Ted Sullivan led off by tripling to right-center. Jerry Cloutier singled past a drawn-in infield scoring Sullivan. Jim Lund grounded into a double play, but Steiger's double and McGonagle's single produced another tally.

Everything went wrong for the Carl's in the fifth as the Gophers pushed across three more markers on only two hits.

Steenson opened the frame by singling to left. The fleet center-fielder then proceeded to steal second and third base. Frank Larson walked and when Slocum uncorked a wild pitch, Steenson scored and Larson moved to second. Gene Elder's single plated Larson and Elder moved around on two fielder's choices.

Steiger and Steenson pooled their second hits for the final Minnesota run.

Outside of Slocum's homerun, Carleton threatened only once. Harry Jacobson and Bob Anhorn started the fourth inning with successive singles off Andersen. However, Jerry Maas hit into a rally-killing double play and the dangerous Slocum popped to Cloutier.

Techel Gets Crack at First Team Right Half

Wes Fesler altered his first team Gopher backfield for the first time yesterday by placing freshman Fred Techel at right halfback.

Techel, who teamed with quarterback Don Swanson, tailback Dale Quist and fullback Mel Holme, replaced Buzz Meighen, who had held the spot all spring.

Used only on defense last year, Techel was moved from left to righthalf when spring drills opened three weeks ago. Since then the Milwaukee freshman passed both Meighen and Chuck Swanum in the fight for the wingback problem post.

Ron Wallin continued to work with the first team at defensive right end yesterday, while another first team newcomer—Ed Flaherty—remained at offensive right end for the second day.

Fesler gave the defense another stiff pass defense drill while the backs worked on ball handling. Backfield fumbling in Saturday's scrimmage was evident from the sidelines, but moving pictures showed nearly 40 fumbles and ill-timed handoff plays.

So the backs may get 20 minutes of ball handling workouts daily from now until the spring game May 24.

Novices Fight Today in Glove Tourney

Minnesota's annual novice boxing tournament will open at 3:30 p.m. today. Ray Chisholm, Minnesota boxing coach, will conduct the meet.

Fighters who didn't weigh in yesterday may do so today between 2:30 and 4:30. Chisholm plans to start the fighting during the weigh-ins to eliminate the large field.

"I figure we will have about 30 or 40 kids in the meet," Chisholm said. "I still plan on using the eight weight divisions, however."

Carls Fall To Golfers; Oliver Leads

Minnesota's golf team, led by captain Dick Oliver and varsity newcomer Pete Oberhauser, smashed Carleton's linksters yesterday 18½ to 2½ on the University course.

Oliver fired a par 71 for the 18 holes while Oberhauser carded a 72. Hadley Hamre of the Gophers also came in with a 72.

Carleton's Tom Colwell topped his team's scoring with a 74 and he barely edged Minnesota's Lloyd Olson who had a 75. Colwell scored his team's only 2½ points in the victory over Olson.

The average score of Les Bolstad's crew was 76 while the Carls recorded a poor 81. It was the second lopsided win over Carleton in the past week.

The summary:
Dick Oliver (M) 71, defeated Tom Thorson (C) 77 2-0.
Pete Oberhauser (M) 72, defeated Dick Dowd (C) 82 3-0.
Dean Brandness (M) 76, defeated Bill LeMay (C) 82 3-0.
Hadley Hamre (M) 72, defeated Rube Anderson (C) 79 2-0.
Harvey Mackay (M) 75, defeated Ed Hagen (C) 79 3-0.
George Reynolds (M) 74, defeated Don Hunt (C) 84 3-0.
Tom Colwell (C) 74, defeated Lloyd Olson (M) 75, 2½-1½.

Reds, Cards Trade Pair

NEW YORK—UP—Major league baseball clubs were doing business at a brisk pace to get down to the 25-player limit by midnight today.

The Cincinnati Reds and St. Louis Cards completed a two-for-two trade in the biggest deal. The Reds sent Dick Sisler and Red Stallcup in exchange for Wally Westlake and Eddie Kazak of the Cards.

Other transactions are expected to materialize today as teams decide to peddle excess talent or send them to the minors.
