DULUTH--Joseph P. Bertrand, lay historian, lumberman and political leader of Fort Arthur, Canada will speak to a joint meeting of the social sciences honor societies and the St. Louis County Historical Society at 6:00 p.m., February 24, at UMD's Kirby Student Center ballroom.

Bertrand's recent book, Highway of Destiny, deals with the Ottawa River valley which was the route of the voyageurs and a prospective deep water project prior to the adoption of the current St. Lawrence Seaway development.

New student members of Pi Gamma Mu, national honorary social sciences society, will be honored at the dinner. Reservations for the dinner can be made at room 107, Social Sciences building.
