DULUTH--Tours of the new campus, a "welcome assembly" and a coffee hour will highlight Parents' Day activities Sunday, September 18, at UMD.

Students will conduct guided tours from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. to all the new campus buildings or to any special division or facility starting at the Kirby Student Center lounge.

At 2:30 p.m. in Kirby ballroom, Provost Raymond W. Darland and Student Association President Donald McArthur, Duluth, will welcome the "moms and dads" to UMD. Academic Dean Thomas W. Chamberlin and other campus officials will be introduced. Jean Askeland, Duluth, Parents' Day chairman, will serve as mistress of ceremonies.

Following the assembly, a coffee hour will give parents a chance to hold informal discussions with division and department representatives.

It is expected some 500 parents and relatives will take part in the Sunday activities.
