ROOSEVELT CONVOCATION

At the convocation this week (Thursday, October 30th), the University will endeavor to join with the country as a whole in doing honor to the memory of Theodore Roosevelt. The address will be delivered by the Reverend Harry Pineo Dewey, D.D., Pastor of Plymouth Church, Minneapolis. Dean E. E. Nicholson will preside.

M. L. BURTON, President

NOTICE TO THE DEANS

There will be a meeting of the Administrative Committee of the Senate tomorrow morning at 10:30 at the Office of the President.

LIBRARY HANDBOOK

The new edition of the Library Handbook is now ready for free distribution. All students, particularly those just entering the University, are urged to secure and to read this handbook. Familiarity with its contents will make it much easier to use the library.

MEDICAL STUDENTS AND FACULTY—NOTICE

A meeting of the students and faculty of the Medical School in the interest of better therapy will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 in the Anatomy Amphitheater. All regular classes will be dismissed at that hour. Addresses will be given by the Chiefs of all the clinical departments. This is a very important meeting and all members of the student body and of the faculty are urged to be present.

E. P. LYON, Dean

FOREIGN STUDENTS—NOTICE

Foreign students in all departments of the University are asked to respond at once to the request for the following information to be sent Mr. Rypins, 314 Folwell Hall: Name in full (last name first), nationality, present address, post-office box, telephone, college, and class.

NOTICE TO CHEMISTS

Students of the School of Chemistry receiving notices to report to the Students' Work Committee should do so at the periods stated in the notices. Failure to respond to these notices without proper excuse renders the student liable to dismissal.

LAUDER W. JONES, Dean

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

All Home Economics students registered for physical education should report to the Secretary's office for a fee statement covering the increased shower-bath fee. Payment of this increase in fee must be made this week.

R. M. WEST, Secretary
