NSIC SAAC Cup

ABERDEEN, S.D. – Wayne State College was the winner of the second annual NSIC Student Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) Cup. WSC was presented the award during the joint meeting of student-athletes and the NSIC Board of Directors at the NSIC SAAC Summit. The NSIC SAAC Summit is taking place Monday-Wednesday on the campus of Northern State University.

Wayne State, which finished in second place in last year's standings, scored 9056 points, defeating second place St. Cloud State (8955) by 101 points and third place UMD (7750) by 1306 points. Highlights of WSC's year included raising nearly $4000 for Make-A-Wish, their highest total ever and not only participating in all three NSIC SAAC initiatives, but also doing seven other campus/community events throughout the year.

The NSIC SAAC Cup, a traveling trophy, that is awarded annually at the SAAC Summit. Institutions receive points throughout the year based on the criteria within the categories below. The winner will be the institutional SAAC with the most points accumulated by the end of the academic year (September 1-May 1). The points must be achieved in each category to be eligible to win the NSIC SAAC Cup.
