

MacNabb,
George ~~MacNabb~~ for 23 years a teacher of piano and piano pedagogy at Eastman School of Music, will be among highlight attractions on the 1958-59 UMD music department schedule.

Mr. MacNabb and his assistant, Richard Hennessy, will ~~present~~ conduct a piano clinic open to all interested persons ~~and~~ without charge Oct. 30-31 in the new UMD humanities building. For 15 years, Mr. MacNabb has headed the piano department of the David Hochstein Memorial Music school in Rochester.

Among other music department features for the coming year announced today by Robert W. House, associate professor of music and music department head, are a faculty ensemble concert, a unique Christmas program, a harpsichord concert, junior-senior student recitals and a series of orchestral, choral and band concerts.

The MacNabb ~~and~~ clinic will be co-sponsored by the Duluth Music Teachers association and the UMD music department.

It will include a lecture by Mr. MacNabb, "Letter to a Parent," at 8 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 30, in Hotel Duluth, and three lectures in the humanities building recital hall Friday, Oct. 31, on "Taking the Mystery Out of Touch," "What Shall I Teach," and "Practice Does Not Always Make Perfect."

A frequent contributor to ~~Etude~~ Music magazine and author of a ~~ix~~ book, "Piano Pedagogy," now ~~in~~ being printed, Mr. MacNabb has made orchestral appearances as ~~piano~~ pianist under batons of Reiner, Goosens, Howard Hanson, Sodero and others. He has been Mischa Elman's accompanist and has appeared on numerous national network ~~musical~~ two-piano concerts.
