Minnesota Crookston set for two big NSIC homecoming matches with SMSU and Sioux Falls

Crookston, Minn.—The University of Minnesota Crookston women's soccer team will look to carry the momentum over from a strong weekend, that saw Minnesota Crookston pick up three points at Winona State and Upper Iowa, with a win and a tie.

This weekend, the Golden Eagles will be part of a busy weekend during homecoming with volleyball and football set for home tilts as well. Minnesota Crookston will welcome Southwest Minnesota State University and the University of Sioux Falls for two big NSIC matches.

Last weekend, the Golden Eagles got solid goalkeeping from sophomore Athena DiMario Done (Windsor, Ontario). DiMario Done was outstanding in net in the match against Winona State, but allowed a goal at the 67' minute. After allowing that goal, the young goalkeeper kept the Warriors from putting the game away, and allowed Lindsey Daml (Jr. North Pole, Alaska) to knot the game up at the 88' minute. DiMario Done continued her shutout streak without allowing a goal against Upper Iowa in a 1-0 win. DiMario Done will look to continue on her 153 straight minutes without allowing a goal.

Offensively, the Golden Eagles have been led by the underclassmen. Maggee Hodgdon (So. Newberg, Ore.) is the leading scorer for Joe Alianiello with three goals on 11 shots, and six points on the season. Daml, and Jessica Withrow (So. Gardnerville, Nev.) have been key contributors as well with two points apiece.

That youth has been key on the back end for Minnesota Crookston as well. Mataya Mierzejewski (Fr. Woodbury, Minn.) has been key, and has been really solid alongside upperclassmen, Paige Pettit (Jr. St. Michael, Minn.) and senior Jessica Scott (Post Falls, Idaho).

The improvement is evident with the young Golden Eagles squad, and they will look to continue to improve this weekend, and continue their standing in the NSIC with two teams above them in the NSIC.
