Duluth--- About 30 pieces of sculpture and ceramics will be exhibited by Fred Gustafson, Northfield, Minn., at his Graduate Art Show August 14-20 at the University of Minnesota, Duluth's (UMD) Tweed Gallery.

A special opening for friends and the public will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday, August 14, for the one-man show in the Studio Gallery.

Gustafson, who received the B.A. degree this past June at UMD, will complete work toward the Master of Arts degree by next June. He taught art this past year at the Duluth Art Institute and will teach art this coming school year at Duluth East High School.

Gustafson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Gustafson, Northfield, Minn.
