

DULUTH--Professional and student home economics personnel will gather on the UMD campus next Saturday (May 2) for the annual spring meeting of the Minnesota Home Economics association.

Business and study sessions will be in Kirby Student center.

Everett Smith, New York City, representative of the manufacturing personnel development service, General Electric Co., will address an 11 a.m. session. Mrs. Dora Mary Macdonald, director of public relations, Duluth board of education, will address a 1:45 p.m. session on "That's Just Off the Top of My Head."

Miss Ruth Palmer, professor and head of home economics at UMD, will welcome the group following a 10 a.m. coffee hour in Tweed gallery served by the UMD Home Economics club.

A morning feature will be a presentation, "How to Use the Demonstration Mirror," at 10:30 a.m. by Mrs. Helen Trader, UMD instructor in home economics.

Miss Henriette Quilling, St. Paul, MIEA president, will preside at a business session at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, instructor in home economics at Woodland junior high school, Duluth, will be toastmistress at the luncheon at 12:45 p.m.

A tea given by home economics students of the College of St. Scholastica, at the College, will conclude the meeting. The program committee includes Miss Mary Kesler, Mankato, Miss Margaret Jacobson, St. Paul, Mrs. Effie Hogenson, St. Paul, and Mrs. Anderson, district counselor.

Mrs. Margaret Adams, executive director, Dairy Council of Duluth, Superior and Cloquet, is publicity chairman.