Forum Literary Society

The Forum Literary Society held its last meeting of the year last night. The program consisted of a number of orations on the Minnesota-Nebraska plan and proved decidedly interesting. Orations were delivered by the following:

Civil Service Reform, Dow; Trusts, Sherman; William Pitt, Jr., Johnson; The Gothenburg System, Jones.

The experiment proved a great success and will undoubtedly become a regular feature of the society program next fall.

U. M. C. C. on Memorial Day

The U. M. C. C. has the honor of leading the Memorial Day Parade. It is earnestly desired that all who possibly can should participate in this parade. It would be shameful to send a mere handful of men; there should be a full battalion. Let every cadet turn out and do honor in representing the institution.

Iowa college gives the editor of the college paper three hours credit, and the local and athletic editors each one hour credit.—ex. Somehow Iowa gets ahead of Minnesota once in awhile—and this is once.

TWO NEW INSTRUCTORS

Department of Mathematics Secures two new men for next year

There will be two new instructors in the Department of Mathematics next fall. They are Mr. Geo. N. Bauer and Mr. G. A. Bliss. Mr. Bauer graduated from the University of Minnesota with the class of '94. He has taken graduate work at Chicago University, in Germany and at Columbia University, N. Y. He will receive his Ph. D. at Columbia this spring. He has also been instructor in mathematics for three years at the University of Iowa.

Mr. Bliss is an alumnus of Chicago University, where he has also taken three years of graduate work there, receiving his Ph. D. this spring. He has done some teaching there and comes highly recommended by the faculty of that institution.

TWO MORE BALL GAMES

Manager Miller announces that he has arranged for two more ball games next week. Next Monday at 3:30 the Varsity will cross bats with the team from the University of North Dakota, a team which holds the championship of North Dakota and will certainly give Minnesota a good game. Tuesday at the same hour, the redoubtable Chamber of Commerce ball-tossers will play the Varsity.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Tomorrow at 3:30 p. m. memorial services will be held in Chapel, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., in honor of our soldier dead. General L. A. Grant will deliver the address. The program is as follows: Marche Funebre, Chopin, H. G. Spaulding; Invocation, Rev. Martin Hardin; Quartette, "Battle Prayer"; Original Poem, "Soldiers Farewell," Lieut. M. E. Tew; Address, General L. A. Grant; Solo, "Not lost, but gone before"; Hymn, "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

Junior Class Meeting

The Juniors held a class meeting yesterday at the third hour, at which a provisional report of the Gopher Board was read. The report showed a total expense of about $2,800, and if all accounts due the Board were paid, a small balance over and above expenses. A committee was appointed to consider the matter of caps and gowns for next year.

Public Speakers League

Public Speakers' League will meet tonight at 7:00 o'clock in Dr. Folwell's Senior Room. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and there should be a large attendance. All members of literary societies are members and each literary society should be well represented.

Dartmouth is trying to raise $100,000 to commemorate in 1901, the one hundredth anniversary of the graduation of Daniel Webster.—ex.

THE ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE

An Appeal to Senior Girls to Become Identified With It

The attention of the senior girls especially is called to what follows. Circulars describing the general association of Collegiate Alumnae and its work, and programs of the past year's work of the Minnesota branch may be obtained in the Library. Through THE MINNESOTA DAILY the association desires to extend a cordial and urgent invitation to the senior girls to become members of the local branch.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae was organized for the purpose of raising the general standing of scholarship, and to facilitate the co-operation of University women graduates in the work of promoting and extending higher education, this not only in the narrow field of academic work, but in the wider one of graduate culture. Only graduates of colleges of recognized worth are admitted to membership.

By the payment of one dollar per year membership in the general association may be retained. This entitles one to the receipt of all publications of the association and to participation in its annual meetings. For membership in the local branch the dues are one dollar and a half per year. One dollar of this goes to the general association, and the remainder is used to meet the expenses of this branch. Even if it is impossible to be an active member of the local branch it is desirable to maintain the connection for membership in one branch entitles one to all the privileges of any of the other branches when business or pleasure takes place within their circles.

A foreign scholarship of the value of $500 is supported by the Association for advanced study. The scholarship is annually awarded to the candidate selected by the committee, upon the evidence of testimonials or personal knowledge. Members who do not receive the scholarship, but who desire to study abroad, upon furnishing proper evidence of their fitness, will be accredited by a council of the association and an advisory council of men composed of University professors and specialists. The A. C. A. scholars are now recognized abroad as the most desirable class of women students who present themselves in foreign universities for graduate work.

A quarterly journal is now published by the Association, in which appear papers upon Educational subjects of general interest "Child Study, Occupations of women, important addresses and discussions of the annual meetings.

The Minnesota branch has appointed standing committees upon Social Settlement work, the Consumers' League, Educational Progress and College Dormitories. During the past year the branch has succeeded in establishing a Consumers' League in Minneapolis which it is intended shall become a state league. This alone is enough to have made the years work a triumphant achievement.

GLORY!!!

Minnesota Defeats Wisconsin 4-3

Wisconsin Outbatted, Outfielded and Out-generated

See Minnesota Do It Again Today

Wisconsin met her Waterloo on Northrop field yesterday afternoon. After a triumphant tour defeating Michigan and Chicago she plays her old time rivals only to go down to defeat. Reedel, her mighty pitcher, after winning his games at Michigan and Chicago, gets drubbed for thirteen hits, while "Brin" Freeman gives him pointers at his trade by only allowing three hits, and two of these were scratches. It was a magnificent game, cleanly played, and the victory is conceded by all to have been merited.

Freeman pitched most magnificent ball, only marred by a wild throw which scored a Wisconsin man. He struck out seven men to Reedel's four. His control was fine and he proved a wizard to the Badgers who couldn't find him at all.

The fielding back of him was fine. Plymat, "Cam," Thielman at second, "Lillian," Hurley, "Spike" and Conway all distinguished themselves. "Spike's" error won't be counted against him after his beautiful 2-bagger in the ninth, scoring the winning run, Plymat making three bags on it. Conway's error was hardly excusable but his stick work will clear him.

The batting of Minnesota was fine and if the boys keep it up today Wisconsin will be looking for a pitcher. The base running was the best seen this year and nobody could find fault with it.

A large crowd was present and a most enthusiastic one. Today's game should find twice as many present, however.

This victory puts Minnesota right in the running with a percentage of 500 and it gives Wisconsin an awful setback. Today's game will set them back a little further.

Capt. Cameron was not in the game being disabled, but his presence on the side lines was a great encouragement to his men. The score:

Varsity	0	1	0	0	0	2	0	0	1	—4
U. of W.	1	0	0	1	1	0	0	0	—3

No one out when winning run was scored.

Struck out, by Freeman 8, by Reedel 4; bases on balls, by Freeman 2, by Reedel 3; hit by pitcher, by Freeman 1; 2-base hits, Thielman, Cameron, Anderson; hits, Minnesota 13, Wisconsin 3; errors, Minnesota 5, Wisconsin 6. Umpire, Jayne.

Coach King has not learned yet how to take defeat gracefully but after today's game he will have had more experience in that line.

There are just 114 students who get the Daily every morning on their Ariel subscriptions who have not paid as yet one cent on that subscription. There are 60 other subscribers to the Ariel who have not paid their subscriptions this year. The Business Manager must of necessity sacrifice time and money to give these persons a daily, but no appreciation is shown by the payment of just dues. The Manager must pay for the paper; you ought to pay what you have promised to pay for value received. Please do not let another day pass by without paying your debts.

Memorial Day Parade

THE University Battalion should turn out in force next Wednesday to take part in the parade. Last fall on the return of the Thirteenth Regiment with only two companies marching the cadets covered themselves with glory. Since then they have been drilling steadily and there should be five full companies to march. A great deal of attention will be paid to the battalion in so much as they will be the only strictly military organization in line; the rest of the parade will be composed of the various secret societies, G. A. R., etc. The march will be short, only about half as long as the march last fall, and no one should stay away on that score. Let everybody turn out and make the last appearance of the battalion a rousing success.

The Daily will be published as usual next week—with the exception of Wednesday, Decoration Day, and Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of Commencement week. The issue on Commencement day will be a special and souvenir number which all subscribers will want.

THE DAILY congratulates every member of the team, the captain, and manager, most heartily on the well earned victory yesterday. The individual and consistent work of each one of them for the last two months brought its reward.

Senior Prom

June 5th, the evening of the Senior Prom, promises to be one of unusual importance in the social circles of the University. Most elaborate arrangements have been made to render the Prom of 1900 the most successful function of the Commencement season. Unusual interest is being shown among both undergraduates and alumni and there is certain to be an enthusiastic and representative number of dancers.

Special efforts have been made to secure a fine program and novel decorations. A definite time will be given to each dance in order that the program will not be shortened towards the end.

The concert will begin at 8:30 and dancing at 9:00 sharp. Tickets may be obtained at the University Book Store or from members of the committee.

THOSE CENSUS SLIPS An Important Matter Which Should Not be Neglected.

Most of the students found in their P. O. boxes yesterday certain census slips to be filled out. It is essential that this matter be attended to at once, and the slips returned to Miss Poucher or Mr. Luby at the desk. Those not having P. O. boxes can get the slips at the desk, and they should be filled out and returned as soon as possible.

Follow instructions literally; be prompt in returning the slips and thus help out Mr. Merriam who is worried over the enumeration of this particular school.

A New College Song Book

The latest and brightest thing along the line of a collection of college songs is a new compilation, with many new additions, from the press of Hines and Noble, New York. The book is entitled "Songs of all the Colleges" and in this it is not a misnomer. The collection is compiled and arranged by David B. Chamberlain, Harvard, and Karl P. Harrington, Wesleyan, and includes not only the old favorites which are sung wherever American college students and graduates assemble the world over, but also a large number of new songs, many of which have never been published before, although very popular in their respective colleges. The Minnesota song "We Cheer for the U. of M." is by C. J. Zintheo, of the old Ski-U-Mah Quartette. The book is notable not only for its contents but also for the artistic manner in which it is gotten up. The colored cover design is very taking. It is made up of a quartet of college glee singers in cap and gown, white and black on red background. The book is so bound that it remains open, a boon which all musicians appreciate. There is quite a demand for these books and the Book Store has a quantity of them.

But in addition teachers have been found for the social settlements and books and magazines collected for them. The committee upon College Dormitories has instituted an investigation into the system which it is hoped may ultimately arouse sufficient interest in the subject to insure the establishment of women's dormitories in our University. This is all serious and practical work and deserves to receive the nominal and financial if not the active and personal support of every woman graduate of the University of Minnesota.

Meetings are held five times a year. Hitherto they have been held alternately in St. Paul and Minneapolis, but next year the experiment of holding meetings at the University will probably be tried. Seniors who desire to become members may do so by communicating with the Secretary, Mrs. Harry Lufkin, 555 Selby Ave., St. Paul, or with the writer of this invitation in the University library.

BUSINESS NOTICES

Al. W. Martin's beautiful production of Harriet Beecher Stowe's legacy to posterity, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be the attraction at the Bijou Opera House next week. Mr. Martin has spared no expense in providing his attraction with a lavish amount of the best scenery that two of the most noted studios in the country could supply. The settings are taken from actual scenes in the far South and are marvels of beauty and accuracy, almost transporting one to the fragrant orange groves and cotton fields of Sunny Dixie Land. Among the prominent scenes are St. Clair's Louisiana home, showing typical plantation house and the surrounding grounds with its Magnolia trees and wealth of tropical verdure; Legree's Red River plantation with the fields of cotton in full bloom, the ice gorge on the Ohio river which enabled Eliza and her child to escape their pursuers, a wild bit of Kentucky mountain scenery known as the Rocky Pass and a most gorgeous transformation in twelve scenes called the Celestial City. To add to the realism a large troupe of colored performers is carried, also donkeys, oxen, and horses. The cast is in the hands of good reputable dramatic artists and nothing has been overlooked to make this the best production of "Uncle Tom" the stage has ever seen.
