SUB: UMD HOCKEY -- MARCH
January 22, 1965

If the UMD hockey squad is destined for a winning season, it must come against competition from the strongest collegiate hockey loop in the country-- the Western Collegiate Hockey Association.

Colorado College, a ~~club~~ club the Bulldogs defeated in an earlier two-game series in Colorado Springs, visit the Duluth Curling Club Wednesday, February 3 for an 8 p.m. contest.

Coach Ralph Romano's sextet then spends two weekends on the road, facing the Minnesota Gophers Feb. 5-6 in ~~the~~ Williams ~~Arena~~ Arena and the North Dakota Sioux Feb. 12-13.

The Bulldogs return home to entertain Minnesota Feb. 23 and complete the clubs' four-game season ~~I~~ series. UMD won the opening encounter, 6-5, in Duluth in early December.

The Bulldogs close their 1964-65 season March 5-6 in the ~~Duluth~~ Duluth Curling Club against Lakehead College of Ft. William, Ontario.
