

PASSING THE WILDERNESS TORCH

Presentation by Chad Dayton

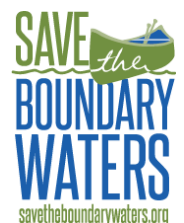

Director of Programs and Partnerships at Wilderness Inquiry

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 8 - 12:00 PM

In response to the recent 50th anniversary of the Wilderness Act, Chad discusses the critical importance of passing along America's most defining tradition: wilderness. Director of Programs and Partnerships for the Minneapolis-based non-profit Wilderness Inquiry, Chad oversees programs that engage nearly 25,000 youth annually in both urban and wilderness settings and demonstrates the necessity of collective impact to facilitate meaningful change.

University of Minnesota Duluth, Kathryn A. Martin Library
4th Floor Rotunda

Hosted by the 2015 Sigurd Olson Lecture Series | In partnership with the Campaign to Save the Boundary Waters