ALL - UNIVERSITY CONVOCATION

Tomorrow Morning at 11:30 - - - - In the Armory

Speaker: G. SHERWOOD EDDY

Associate General Secretary International Committee, Y. M. C. A.

SUBJECT: THE PRESENT WORLD SITUATION -- a Challenge to America

PRESIDENT BURTON PRESIDING

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE UNIVERSITY:

One of the rarest opportunities of the year will be offered to the University at the convocation tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. in the Armory. Sherwood Eddy is generally conceded the world over to be one of the most powerful and effective speakers to students. I know of no one whose messages appeal to university audiences more than do those of Mr. Eddy. He has a world point of view. His long experiences in India and the Orient, together with his war service in France, give him the right to speak with conviction upon the problems of the world today and our responsibilities in connection with them.

M. L. Burton, President
