

DR. HOWARD A. DAWSON LECTURE SCHEDULED

Dr. Howard A. Dawson, Washington, D. C., director of the division of rural service, National Education Association, will speak at a UMD convocation in Main auditorium at 10 a.m. Tuesday, July 7, on 'The Plight of the Public Schools.'

Dr. Dawson, co-author of a recently published book, The Modern Rural School, is nationally recognized as one of the leading authorities on rural education.

Dr. Dawson is teaching two graduate courses in rural education at UMD during the first summer term.

the umd calendar, summer, 1953

The UMD Calendar ●

Movies

- June 26- "Taconite" shown by Dr. T. Chamberlin, UMD Geography Department, Room 100, 2 p. m.
- July 2- "The Devil and Daniel Webster," Main Auditorium, 8 p. m.
- July 23- "Julius Caesar," Main Auditorium, 8 p. m.
- Aug. 6- "Passion for Life," Main Auditorium, 8 p. m.

Drama

- Aug. 18-20-College Play, "Othello," 8:30 p. m. (place to be designated).

Music

- July 13- Doraine and Ellis, light opera and musical comedy team, Main Auditorium, 11 a. m.
- Aug. 3- Lois Bannerman, harpist, Main Auditorium, 10 a. m.

Convocations and Clinics

- June 30- Alice Marble, famous tennis star. Convocation, Main Auditorium, 10 a. m. Tennis Clinic UMD Tennis Courts 12:30
- July 7- Dr. Howard A. Dawson, Washington D. C. rural education leader, Main Auditorium, 10 a. m.
- July 8- Francis Gamelin, Mental Hygiene consultant, "Mental Hygiene and the Teacher," 7:30-9:30 p. m.
- July 20- Mary Latimer, humorous monologist, Main Audit. , 8 p. m.

Special Alumni Features

- July 10- All-school and Alumni dance, Hotel Duluth Ballroom, music by the Vagabonds, refreshments. Dancing 9-12 p. m.
- July 30- All-school and Alumni square dance, UMD gym, 8:30 p. m.

Special Conferences

- Aug. 3-5-Institute in Language Arts
- Aug. 6-7-Institute in Elementary School Music

Above items dealing with practical prodedures and recent developments in the teaching of the language arts and of elementary school music.

● Summer 1953