THE GREEK PLAY

The Dramatization of the Odyssey
Given at the Lyceum Last Night a Great Success.

There was a large attendance to witness the dramatization of the Odyssey last night and the play came fully up to its expectations. The hymn to Apollo was very pleasing and the work of Rowena Pattee in this deserves special commendation. Of course the play proper was different from the modern plays and so was probably different from what was expected by most of the audience, but the insight that it gave into Greek life and manners was both interesting and instructive. The parts were all well taken, although some of the principals did not speak so that they could be heard. Edward Sanford as Odysseus and Miss Barrows as Penelope, were both almost perfection in rendering their parts. Miss Barrows has played this part several times before, and though she was speaking in Greek her acting was so realistic that the words needed no other interpretation. The costumes were very attractive. Among the most interesting parts of the play were the ball playing by the girls and the gymnastic contests.

The Greek department has won a great reputation for itself and has by this play unquestionably stimulated greater interest in Greek throughout the city at least.

A matinee will be given this afternoon at 2:30. A large delegation from Carleton College comes up this morning to attend it.

CENTRAL vs. MADISON

Central High School will play Madison High School at Nicollet Park, next Saturday at 10 o'clock. The game promises to be as good a contest as it was last year—and 'Varsity people certainly hope that Central will duplicate its victory of last year. Tickets are 50 cents only and are on sale now at Voegeli's, Cirkler's, West Hotel Drug Store, Barnaby's and the 'Varsity Book Store.

Chapel Yesterday

The students were delightfully entertained, yesterday, a few minutes after the chapel exercises, when Master Charles Dock rendered two beautiful pieces on the piano. Although Master Dock is but twelve years old he understands the art, and plays with much expression. He will give a recital in the near future, at the Lyceum theatre, when he will be assisted by Mrs. Maud Ulmer Jones and other musical artists.

THE MEN ON THE TWO BIG TEAMS

Statistics Regarding the Players on the Minnesota and Wisconsin Teams

The following statistics will prove of very great interest to all who are watching the outcome of the game Saturday. The Wisconsin team, it will be seen from the figures given, only averages about 170 pounds. The figures may not prove to be accurate, but it is known that they are accurate for some of the men, and probably are for all. However, the light average of the team is not an especial weakness for Wisconsin's rapidity of play offsets it.

The statistics for the Minnesota team are as follows:

Knowlton is a resident of Minneapolis. He is a graduate of the East Side High School. He played quarter back for one year on the East Side High School team. He is a Civil Engineer of the class of '02. Position, full-back; age 22. Sigma Chi.

A COMMUNICATION

Editor MINNESOTA DAILY,
Dear Sir: I believe that the students have just cause for complaint against the football management in their disposition of tickets for the Wisconsin game.
Tickets are placed on sale at the Book store and at Ecklund & Buck's for the benefit of the students; they are for sale
at several places in the city and in St.
Paul for the convenience of other people.
It seems to me reasonable to suppose that the students should have, at the least, an even chance with the outsiders.
That is, that the seats offered the students should be as desirable as those sent over to town. In fact, Ecklund & Buck and the Book Store together, had two hundred seats along the extreme rear of the grand stand and two hundred seats in the bleachers opposite. All of the best seats were sent to St. Paul and Minneapolis distributors and have been sold.

All this must be clever financial management, but it surely indicates little consideration for the student body. I may be wrong, but it seems to me that our athletics are primarily a concern of the students, and that the men and women who consistently and loyally support the team should not be disregarded for the sake of those who will come out for one or two big games and then jeer at the team if it should lose.

Whatever may have been the purpose of the management, the fact remains that the students must take undesirable and scattered seats next Saturday, and concentrated rooting as well as the individual enthusiasm must suffer because of this error.

I am one of hundred of students who have never, during their college courses, missed a football game or failed to support the athletics of Minnesota in every possible way, and I do protest in behalf of every student who has done his full duty to the management, that the management, our representatives, show at least as much consideration to us as to the public beyond the campus.

W. H. LAWRENCE,
'97, Law '01.

Harvard's registration this year is 4,234, a gain of 167 over last year.

SATURDAY'S ROOTING

Wisconsin is coming up Saturday with five hundred rooters. Five hundred rooters away from home are the same as one thousand at home. Minnesota's rooters, then, must face the music of one thousand "brass-lined" Badgers next Saturday. What is Minnesota going to do about it? The writer imagines he can hear every reader saying to himself, "You wait and hear us." All right and well, but how are we going to hear you? The rooting at the Chicago game was not as good a it should have been, although the papers did say it was the "best ever." With 1000 Wisconsin rooters yelling for might and main, it is going to take 2000 Minnesota men to out yell them. The DAILY certainly believes that many will be there and that Wisconsin will be out-yelled, but it must be such a complete out-yelling that Wisconsin will not be heard from start to finish. The only way that that can be done will be for every fellow who sits on the bleachers to have a megaphone and to use it. Seven hundred and fifty fellows with megaphones must be on hand. Megaphones must be as prominent as colors. One man with a megaphone is five men without them.
Buy a megaphone now and be five men on Saturday. The megaphone brigade must be counted on to do the chief rooting and it MUST BE BIG. Every fellow in college who expects to sit on the bleachers ought to have a megaphone, and he ought to get it at once for there wont be any left on Saturday.
GET A MEGAPHONE AND ROOT.

RESERVED SEATS

There has been a great deal of inquiry
about the reserved seats for the game next Saturday. It is a generally known fact that nearly all the seats which have been reserved so far have been sold.
The report was around the U yesterday that all the bleachers were to be reserved, thus making the price for anything but standing room $1.50. This is incorrect. Section F on the bleacher side has been reserved and all of the grand stand. The management yesterday told the DAILY that it would probably rope off a place on the bleachers for ladies, since they did not relish the idea of getting mixed up in the rush. As to the megaphone brigade it is very much to be desired that the members of this should sit together and if the management does not arrange for this the boys say they can whistle for their rooting.
However, Wickersham says that if they get there early enough it will be arranged so that they can sit in a bunch. All those not included in the above mentioned classes had better pay their extra 50 cents and say nothing.

"Sam" Reynolds has gotten out a very neat lapel button bearing Captain Page's picture. He has a large number of them and is selling them for ten cents apiece. Every loyal supporter of the team ought to have one.

Returns will be received the night of election, at the Exposition Building.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE
Juniors complete their first six weeks of clinics in Minneapolis, this week. For the next six weeks they will go to St. Paul.
Officers of the Senior class for this year are as follows: President, Finn Koren; Vice-president, R. C. Ferrish; Treasurer, C. A. Houston; Secretary, J. A. Stanford; Serg.-at-arms, G. A. Eisengraber.
Medics will have a half holiday Saturday and everybody is expected to be present at Northrop Field. Next Tuesday will also be a general holiday.
S. J. Brinhall was elected president of the Junior class to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of T. C. Fulton.

The class of 1903 elected officers yesterday. The selection is as follows:
C. W. Russell, President; J. P. Schneider, Vice Pres.; Sue Hebard, Sec.; B. S. Nickerson, Treas.; F. G. Hubbard, Seg't. at Arms.

ENGINEERS NOTICE
Mr. A. Collins, agent for Hartford Steam Boiler Insurance Co. will talk on "Boilers" today before the Engineer's society at 2 p. m. in Dr. Frankforter's lecture room. All Engineers are expected to attend.

George Cole, '00, was seen on the campus yesterday.

COLLEGE OF LAW
The Laws should take the initiative in department football, this year. Its record of the past has been one of supremacy both in football and base ball. The Engineers had the audacity to claim a victory last fall—a fact which was disputed—but the very reason that they came near winning the game (through the kindness and sympathy of the officials) is reason why they ought to be punished this year by a score of 98-0, and our friends, the Medics, want a similar treatment. Just let some fellow who understands the game announce his willingness to look after the law football team and there will be fifty fellows out for practice right away.

DRAMATIC CLUB
At the request of several members of the club and owing to the fact that the Wisconsin game comes next Saturday, it will be necessary to postpone the social meeting indefinitely.

There have been a great number of excellent songs and yells handed in to the committee during the last week and it prints below the two songs that appeared to them to be the best.

The following five yells it recommends for use at the game.

Hoo Rah! Hoo Rah!

Tune—Yankee Doodle

I

Wisconsin you are easy too,
You can't play Minnesota;
Stone walls are not your specialty.
Why don't you try Dakota?

The gophers pull the badger's tail
You'r out of date, your tricks are stale,
You can't play ball for sour ale
When you play Minnesota.

II

The Cardinal is fading fast
Maroon and gold Grows brighter;
We'll make Wisconsin bite the dust,
For Minnesota's mightier.

Oh! Watch us black the badger's eye.
Their line is soft as pumpkin pie;
They cannot win, they needn't try,
When they play Minnesota.

III

The gophers will the victors be,
The game goes to Minn'sota.

If you'll listen we'll sing you a song
about Minnesota.

And of the strength of her team which is really something immense.

How her line would make the wall of old Stonewall Jackson

Look about the size of thirty cents.

Chorus—No 1.

This is our song. Rah-Rah-Rah-Rah!
Shi-U-Mah! U-Mah! U-Mah! Hoorah!
Hoo Rah! Hoo Rah! Hoo Rah!
For Minnesota.

For the Maroon and the Gold lead on to V.

I-C T-O-R-Y Vic-tory.

For 'Varsity! 'Varsity! 'Varsity!
Minn-e-so-ta.

We would like to sing you a song
about Wisconsin.

But what in the deuce is the use of wasting our wind that way.

For the undertaker'll do business with Wisconsin.

After the game is over today.

Chorus—No. 2.

So what in the deuce! the deuce! the deuce! Is the use!
The use! the use! the use! Of wasting our wind on Wisconsin.

For her don't cut no ice with we,
So us ain't doing no shouting for she,
And U! Rah! Rah! ain't in it a minute,
With U. of Minnesota.

FINE LECTURE COURSE

The lecture course to be given by the Institute of Arts and Lectures this year is one of the finest courses ever offered in any City. All students would find the course an education in itself, if patronized.
The course which was so popular last year will be equally as good this year, consisting as it does of ten lectures on the widest possible range of subjects.
An outline of the course follows, for the benefit of those who are interested:

Saturday, Nov. 17th, Earnest Seton-Thompson, illustrated lecture on wild animals.

Friday, Nov. 23rd, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, "The Message of Tennyson".

Friday, Nov. 30th, Richard Le Galliene, "Omar Khayyam".

Friday, Jan. 11th, Thomas Wentworth Higginson, "American Orators and Oratory".

Dr. Hamilton Wright Mabel, who was here last year, will also return, the date to be announced later.

Friday, Jan. 25th, Dr. Newell Dwight
Hillis, "The Tragedy of the Ten-Talent Men from Socrates to Abraham Lincoln".

Friday, Feb. 8th, W. J. Clarke, "Wireless Telegraphy".

Saturday, February 23rd, Mesdame
Sarah Grand, "The Art of Happiness".

Friday, March 8th, Gen'l. John B.
Gordon, "The Last Days of the Confederacy".

Friday, March 22, Dr. Frederick A.
Cook, "The South Pole".

All the lectures will be given at the Lyceum, and the students will do well to remember the dates.
