DULUTH--UMD debaters will argue right-to-work laws versus the union shop before the Cloquet Rotary club at the Gillette Supper club Tuesday noon (Feb.18).

Affirmative speakers will be Jim Bernard, senior, and Sherman Gonyea, junior, both of Proctor; negative, Jack West and Bill Mularie, both of Duluth, freshmen.

On Dec. 31, Bernard and Gonyea on the affirmative, upholding right-to-work laws, gained the decision of the Duluth Lions Club in an audience ballot.

On Feb. 8, a negative team, of which Mularie was a member, gained the majority of the votes of the Duluth Saturday Lunch Club, as the team argued for the union shops.
