

A JOHN BIRCHER SPEAKS OUT:

"Let's Stop helping Communism"

ALAN STANG, author, columnist, and lecturer, feels that there is no sense fighting Communists in Viet Nam while helping them everywhere else. His research has led him to conclude "If we stopped helping the Communists, the War in Viet Nam would end in a few months, and Communism would begin to disappear from the face of the Earth."

Mr. Stang has written best-selling book IT'S VERY SIMPLE on the Civil Rights Movement. His latest book THE ACTOR is about John Foster Dulles and our country's foreign policy. He also writes articles for REVIEW OF THE NEWS and AMERICAN OPINION.

Speech
Murphy Hall Auditorium

Noon, Tuesday, April 29

25¢ Donation

Sponsored by SPAR.

SPAR

ALTHOUGH WE DO NOT AGREE TOTALLY WITH Mr. STANG,
WE BELIEVE THAT EVERY VIEWPOINT DESERVES TO BE HEARD.