UMC to Dedicate Time Capsule in the New Student Center

By Krista Lemos on Friday, September 2, 2005

On Friday, September 9, the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) will dedicate a time capsule at 12:00 p.m. in the Prairie Room in the new student center. The dedication will recognize both the Northwest School of Agriculture (NWSA) and UMC, as well as commemorate the centennial of the campus.

Pam Holsinger-Fuchs, vice chancellor for student affairs and enrollment, will serve as the mistress of ceremonies for the event. Deann Roers, UMC student body president, will speak on behalf of the student body along with Stephanie Helgeson, director of athletics, Ray Dusek representing NWSA Alumni Association, and Dr. Kari Torkelson, representing the UMC Alumni Association.

The recently completed student center replaces the former Bede student center, which served the campus from 1921 until its demolition in March 2004. The new facility includes a bookstore, student lounges, ballroom, and conference rooms. The grand opening of the student center will take place on September 30 with a formal dedication at 1:30 p.m. in the Bede Ballroom.
