Choir to Perform Spring Concert

By Elizabeth Tollefson on Monday, April 11, 2016 The University of Minnesota Crookston Music and Theater Department is presenting a spring choir concert at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 17 in the Kiehle Auditorium. Musical selections will include spirituals, Broadway show tunes, and some light classics.

The University of Minnesota Crookston Choir of thirty-voices is under the direction of Associate Professor George French and includes several singers from China, Nigeria, and South Korea. Members of the ensemble recently returned from a performing trip to Duluth, Minn., where they performed at schools in Erskine, Fosston, and Bagley along with the performance in Duluth. Always in demand, these singers will have performed nine times during the month of April.

The one-hour concert is free and open to the public, although a free-will offering is available that helps support the ensemble when it is one the road. For more information, please contact George French at 218-281-8266.

The University of Minnesota Crookston now delivers 34 bachelor's degree programs, 22 minors, and 39 areas of emphasis on campus as well as 14 degree programs entirely online. These degrees are offered in the areas of agriculture and natural resources; business; liberal arts and education; and math, science and technology. With an enrollment of 1,800 undergraduates from more than 20 countries and 40 states, the Crookston campus offers a supportive, close-knit atmosphere that leads to a prestigious University of Minnesota degree.
