

UMD STAFF NEWS LETTER

Vol. II No. 31

February 8, 1952

Holiday

The University will be closed in observance of Lincoln's birthday on Tuesday, February 12. No classes will meet and all offices will be closed.

Theater

"Winterset," the Maxwell Anderson drama regarded as a reflection of the Sacco-Vinsetti case, will be presented Wednesday through Saturday, February 13 - 16, by the Theater Guild. This production is under the direction of Dr. Harold L. Hayes, and will be staged at 8:20 p.m. daily in Main Auditorium. Tickets may be obtained from the UMD Theater Office.

Athletic Events

Hockey Schedule

February 12 . . . . .	St. Johns . . . . .	St. Johns
February 13 . . . . .	St. Cloud . . . . .	St. Cloud

Basketball Schedule

February 12 . . . . .	Superior . . . . .	Superior
February 16, 8:00 p.m. . . . .	St. Marys . . . . .	Armory
February 18, 8:00 p.m. . . . .	Concordia . . . . .	Armory

Campus Fugit

The following staff members spent Wednesday, February 6 on the Minneapolis Campus, attending various meetings:

Provost King attended an Administrative Committee meeting.

Dr. Raymond W. Darland, Head of the Biology Department, attended a meeting of President Morrill's Special Senate Committee on Faculty Participation.

Dr. Gerhard von Glahn, Head of Political Science, participated in a Senate Committee meeting.

Faculty Front

Mr. William A. Porter addressed Hibbing public school teachers on January 30 on possibilities of educational advancement through extension courses and through special classes at UMD. He also addressed Proctor teachers on January 31 on "The Status Quo in Education."

On Wednesday, February 6, four faculty members participated in Career Day at Virginia, Minnesota, an activity sponsored jointly by the Virginia public schools and the Rotary Club. Dr. Emmett Davidson gave the principal address to a group of four or five hundred juniors and seniors. Dr. Elizabeth Graybeal, Mrs. Eleanor Kraker, and Dr. Valworth R. Plumb participated in leading discussion groups concerned with opportunities in the fields of home economics, physical education, recreation, and teaching.

Mr. Harold A. Stueland represented the Duluth Branch at a dedication ceremony of the new Student Union Building at Macalaster College, Wednesday, February 6.

Attached to this News Letter

A schedule of summer session classes is attached to this News Letter as a convenience to faculty advisers who may find need for it during the advisory week, which has been set for the period from Monday, February 18 to Monday, February 25. Spring quarter class schedules will be available for faculty and students on Thursday, February 21. (Mr. Edwin B. Wenzel, Acting Director of the Office of Student Personnel Services)