BATTLE PROMISED IF FROSH FAIL TO APPEAR IN GREEN

Patience of Sophomores is About Exhausted—Threaten to Act at Once.

ONLY SMALL NUMBER OF GREEN CAPS ARE SOLD

Failure of Freshmen to Act at Once May Bring Upperclassmen Into Fray.

There will be a grand cleaning of freshmen on the campus this morning if the plans formed by the sophomore academics at a meeting in the Little Theatre at noon yesterday materialize. The second year men unanimously resolved that all freshmen end, that the Frosh must and will wear green caps beginning now and continuing to do so until homecoming day, November 3. Several members of the class spoke, stirring the men to prompt action. A motion to the effect that the campaign begin at once was met with enthusiastic support. Only 800 green caps have been sold so far, and it will be the purpose of the sophomores to see that not only the owners of these wear them, but that the remaining 1,500 caps in the Co-Op. are at once disposed of.

The sophomores will meet in the Y. M. C. A. parlor in the Men's Union, at 10:20 this morning. At least that is where they will begin to meet. By 10:30 they will no doubt have overrun the entire main floor of the building. They will be armed and organized, and according to a statement made by Clayton Lewis, president of the class, the Frosh will be clad in green headgear if they know what is best for them. "This class," continued Mr. Lewis, "is going to see that Minnesota's traditions are lived up to, and if we can't do it alone we have the support of the upperclassmen."

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the second year men just exactly who is a sophomore. The sophomores wish it understood that every man who was here last year is one of them, regardless of the fact that he may be shy some credits on account of the S. A. T. C. quarter.

FROSH BACK AT 'EM. Sophomores, sophomores get this scheme. Through your well nigh solid bean. We will wear those foolish caps. But please attach some furar flaps.

Cross Country To Go To Wisconsin

Running Team Will Accompany Football Squad for Meet at Madison.

Coach Frank and a cross country team of six men will leave with the football squad for Madison, Thursday night. The Gopher long distance men will endeavor to take the measure of the Wisconsin sextet on the morning of the big game, Saturday. While the personnel of the local team had not been decided up to yesterday evening, likely candidates for the team have narrowed down to ten men.

Among the men who stand the best chance of making the journey are: Wilder, this year's captain; Lynch, Moon, Bennett, Hampt, Gaumnitz, Hovestad, Putnam, Armstrong, and D. De Carle.

All of these men have been training faithfully for the contest and, with possibly the exception of Gaumnitz, the squad seems to be in the best best of condition. Three times each week since the beginning of school there has been a long jaunt on the river road that has grown in length as the season has advanced.

There have been 20 men out on the squad at various times during the year, despite the many handicaps. Cross country has had to overcome at Minnesota. This showing while not large, has been encouraging to the coach, as there is not a truly suitable running course near the armory, where the men start on their runs.

TILICUMS HOLD SMOKER.

A big smoker for the Tillicum club will be held this evening at the Phi Gam house. The club organized last week and officers for the coming year were elected. It is desired to have a full attendance at this meeting so that the plans for the coming dance can be discussed.

Daily Hallowe'en Dance Friday.

Novelties Featured

Program of Surprise Events is Main Idea of the Daily Hallowe'en Party.

"Original" best describes the arrangements being made for the much heralded social event of the season, the Daily Hallowe'en party, at the armory, Friday evening, October 31. All plans previously announced have been discarded as "ordinary." The whole affair will be a complete surprise. Decorations, music, novelties, and programs are referred to by Miss Isabelle Borgeson, head of the committee on arrangements, as heretofore unknown on the campus of the University of Minnesota. Steve Shannon, in charge of the decorations, has called in secret council the professional decorators who have been engaged for the occasion, to completely revise their plans. No hint could be obtained as to the nature of the new designs to be used.

Among the entertainment features will be the presentation of a "A Rustic Courtship," an interpretation of "Me-ow," three singers, representing the Feist Music Company, singing all the latest popular song hits between dances. These, along with the music furnished by an eight-piece orchestra, led by "Peppy" Oldre, famous for his banjo jazz, cannot help but make the Daily dance fulfil every forthcoming expectation.

Members of team 12, who led by Miss Junanita Small, won the Daily subscription contest, will be hostesses.

National Worker To Address Girls

Noted Y. W. C. A. Executive Will Talk at General Meeting of Women.

Miss Louise Holmquist, executive of the department of research and method of the national Y. W. C. A. board, will address the women of the university at a meeting next Tuesday afternoon, November 4, at 4:00 p. m. in the Little Theatre. Miss Holmquist will be here under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. She is one of the most widely known and brilliant Y. W. C. A. workers in the country and her message will be of interest to every girl in the university. Marion Andrews, president of the Y. W. C. A., will have charge of the meeting. All women of the university from both campuses are invited to attend. Following Miss Holmquist's talk, the recognition service for Y. W. members will take place in the assembly room of Shevlin hall, at 5:30.

At 8:00 o'clock, the annual banquet will be served in the cafeteria, at which all new members of the Y. W. C. A. are to be the guests of the old members. Freshmen girls who expect to attend are asked to hand in their names and get their tickets at the office. Theodosia Burton has charge of the tickets for old members. They may be had at the Y. W. office, also, and are fifty cents. All reservations for the banquet must be made by Monday noon, November 3, for both new and old members.

Ag College Will Debate With Ames

Question for Debate to Be "Resolved That Congress Shall Pass the Kenyon Bill."

In preparation for the dual meet with Ames college, the first week in December, the two-outs for the Agricultural college debating teams will be held on Saturday, November 8.

Unusual interest is being shown in gathering material for the try-outs. Mr. Glick, instructor in argumentation and public speaking at the University Farm, is confident that the representatives of the agricultural college will be comparable to those of former years.

The subject of the debate is to be: "Resolved, that congress shall pass the Kenyon bill, providing for the regulation of the meat packing industry." In order that the very best students of the college may be selected the try-outs will consist of a six minute talk upon the subject. Those who are best qualified in the estimation of the department of rhetoric will compose the team.

Any one interested in the work may still become eligible by conferring with Mr. Glick.

Spooky Party In Store For Entire University At Union Saturday Night

"See Ya in the Minnesota Union, Saturday night, November 1, for a great big, scary, witchy, spooky, Hallowe'en Party—Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A. festival in honor of the freshmen. Come and don't bring a cent!" So read the posters which are distributed around the campus today. They tell the whole story. The two Christian associations on the university, feeling the need of some festive occasion at which the new students at Minnesota can become acquainted with one another, and at the same time have a "grand old frolic", have planned this party for the "Frosh". The doors of the Union will be open to all students of all classes.

The principal purpose of the party is to have the upperclassmen meet the incoming students and to allow these new men and women to get in touch with the churches of the city. Almost every church in the city is preparing some stunt as a part of the program of the entertainment. The committee in charge of arrangement reports that the party will take the form of a typical Hallowe'en festival; that the traditional apple-bobbing, ghost stories, zesty palmists and other mysterious, Hallowe'en events will be much in evidence.

The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. are sparing no efforts to make this an enjoyable, long-to-be-remembered occasion. The chairman of the committee said yesterday afternoon: "Our committee feels that the two 'Y's' are doing a great work in preparing this party. The financial end of the deal is being entirely borne by the association. No charge will be made either for admission or for any part of the entertainment. These students who have attended a regular, old-fashioned church party know what they may expect at Saturday's doings. A swirling, happy evening of good old enthusiasm is being formulated. We think it entirely reasonable to expect an attendance of 1,000 students. The good old 'Y's' should be repaid for their good work."

All Upperclassmen Out! The committee on arrangements follows: Douglas Anderson, chairman; Cecil Branham, Cecil McHale, Grace Shannon, Frances Gunderson, William Knapp, Helen Hart.

It has not yet been decided whether the ballroom will be utilized for dancing. Announcement to that effect will be made later if the proposition materializes. The committee requests that all upperclassmen who can do so will attend to welcome the freshmen into the "U. of M."

Burton Leaves

President to Address Michigan Teachers' Meeting at Detroit—To Return Saturday.

President M. L. Burton leaves this afternoon for Detroit, Michigan, where he will address the Michigan State Teachers' association on Thursday night and Friday morning. He will return Saturday morning in time to attend the meeting of the state committee for selection of Rhodes scholars.

Gopher To Have A Novel Department

"Special Occasions" To Have A Section to Themselves in Junior Organ.

The Gopher this year will introduce an innovation in a "Special Occasions" department. This special occasions' department is to be one of the five big divisions of the 1921 Gopher. It will be illustrated, and will feature the Sophomore vaudeville of last year, the Cosmopolitan vaudeville, the different productions of the Masquers and Players, the senior circus, the engineers' Soph-Frosh scrap, the Dent boat trip, the Better Minnesota Spirit movement, and many other things of interest to all university students. The concerts and convocations will be given space in this year's Gopher. The activities of the farm school will also be represented.

The Gopher staff this year has plenty of good material to work with and intends to make this a record year for the Gopher. They expect to justify the slogan, "An Annual With Reasons."

New Buildings To Be Erected

Dormitories On Campus Included in Building Plans Just Announced.

Plans are under consideration for the erection of a new administration building, store house, addition to Shevlin hall and new dormitories on the campus, according to H. A. Hildebrandt, superintendent of buildings and grounds of the U. of M.

"The idea for the erection of new campus dormitories has not as yet been given much attention," said Mr. Hildebrandt, "but is certainly a problem that should be taken up very soon. The housing problem at Minnesota has proven to be a serious one, the small capacity of the present dormitories having forced students to seek places of living in many remote parts of the city. As the number of students here has increased, the need for more dormitories has become greater."

No definite action in regard to building has yet been decided upon. A little consideration has been given to the need of a new library.

Daily Hallowe'en Dance Friday.

Women's Meeting

First All-University Women's Mass Meeting in Little Theatre This Noon.

A mass meeting of all the women of the University will be held in the Little Theatre at 12:30 today. This is the annual mass meeting of all university women taking place the beginning of every school year. President Burton will speak, having a message of vital importance to the women of Minnesota.

Elizabeth Forsell, president of W. S. G. A., will preside. She will give a short preliminary talk about the objects and purposes of W. S. G. A. Laura Peck will explain the Big Sister movement; Elsie Van Neas, president of Women's Academic council will discuss the honor system; and Mabel Prothers, treasurer of W. S. G. A., will explain how W. S. G. A. funds are handled. Every girl is urged to attend.

Rumors Of Shakeup In Football Lineup

Signs Indicate a Change in Makeup of Eleven That Will Oppose Wisconsin.

By PAGE AHERN.

Rumors concerning the Minnesota football situation were floating about last night that would indicate there would be a considerable shakeup in the Gopher ground gaining department. With the return of several backfield men of no small ability Dr. Williams will more than have his hands full sorting out his large array of material. While the lineup for the Wisconsin game is still undecided, it is nevertheless certain that the backfield will look considerably different from the one that bowed to Iowa.

With such men as Haertel, Phillips and Kennedy discarding their bandages and braces to return to the Maroon and Gold squad, the Gopher tutor should be able to put the best offensive team of the year into the field, Saturday. Lampi, Ruben, Arntson, Regnier and Oas are all reported to be in good shape and are all waging a battle royal to get into the clash with the Badgers.

Jack Phillips, the best ground gainer on the squad, judging from past performances, was on the sidelines in multi last night. He is closely following the signal drill and hopes to be in his gridiron togs this afternoon.

"Joe" Rath, the Northrop field man-curiar, had a young army of assistants out early this afternoon removing, a layer each, of both snow and of hay from about a fourth of the field for the afternoon's practice session. The turf seemed to be in very fair condition despite the poor football weather that has been the lot of this part of the country recently.

With Northrop ready for them the Gopher squad abandoned their makeshift gridiron on the armory "gym" floor and cavorted once more on their

Big Sisters Give Party In Shevlin

Snake Charmer From Kalamazoo Added Attraction to Hallowe'en Party at Shevlin.

A snake charmer has been added to the already scary Hallowe'en party which the Big Sisters are giving for the freshmen girls on Thursday afternoon in Shevlin hall. This snake charmer has come all the way from Kalamazoo, where she was receiving an enormous salary in a circus. Besides this, there are to be many "freaks" who also have seen circus life.

All Shevlin will be decorated with corn husks and pumpkins—to make the "Ag" campus people feel at home. A row of these pumpkins were on display yesterday. Such versatile and incomparable pumpkins have never been seen on this campus, the artists declared. Since President Wilson has lifted the ban on beers, there is to be a bar. Apples from the ceiling, apples in tubs, apples everywhere. Come and see.

Mildred Hogan, who is in charge of the program, refuses to reveal more of the stunts. "All I can say is that anyone who doesn't come is going to miss the best party of the year," she declared.

Big Sisters are requested to take their freshmen. All university girls are invited, however.

BIG HOMECOMING CELEBRATION IS HERE NEXT WEEK

Festival to Eclipse All Former Homecomings—Committee on The Job.

SOUVENIR HOMECOMING PROGRAM WILL BE SOLD

November 7 and 8 Will Be Red Letter Days for All Old Grads.

Minnesota will have a homecoming this year which will eclipse any ever given before, and will approach the famed homecomings of the larger eastern colleges. This year the All-University Council and the Upper Classmen's association, representative of every college on the campus, will merge their energy toward making November 7 and 8 stand out in the memory of the thousands of old grads. To accomplish this larger and better homecoming a committee of hustlers have been appointed.

The entire organization is headed by Max F. Stevens, as general chairman, assisted by Charles Cantieney, Elizabeth Forsell, and Herbert LeFKovitz. They have chosen Wendell MacRae, assisted by Richard Giffilan and Warren Tingdale, to handle all publicity regarding the two big days—Homecoming Program. Sold.

In addition to the annual sale of Homecoming buttons, which is being handled by Elmer Engelbert, a 32-page souvenir Homecoming program will be sold on the campus. This program will contain a welcome to alumni by President Burton, and an answer by Professor Joseph Jorgens of South high school, who is president of the General Alumni association. An accurate article of Minnesota plans for a new campus, including a description of the proposed mall and campaign will be included in the program. A history of the Better Minnesota movement started last year by the Upper Classmen's association, is an article which will be of interest to the men returning. Besides these special articles, a review of Minnesota football, Minnesota's record compared to that of Illinois, scores so far this season and pictures of the coaches and players will be included. It will be a program truly representative of 1919 Homecoming, and one destined to be kept in one's memory book or drawer of Minnesota souvenirs.

Pep-Fest and Class Scrap. Steve Shannon and Frank McNally will have charge of a pep-fest Friday evening at which a host of former football stars and rooster kings will be present. The annual banquet of the Academic Alumni association Friday evening at Shevlin hall will be dismissed in time so that the old grads may move to the parade grounds in a body.

Kenneth Owens and Cecil McHale will take charge of the big Frosh-Sophomore academic scrap Saturday morning. This will be one of the attractions to pull the alumni back to the campus in the morning. In addition the annual Carling Cup race will be held, and in the rotunda of the library the registration of the former students will add another reason for alumni being on the campus the entire day. Milton Anderson, art editor of the 1920 Gopher, and George M. Lind say of the engineering school, will handle the posters to be placed on the campus and townout.

Campus to Be Decorated. The decorations of the campus in Gopher colors has been delegated to Galus Tarmon and Ray Lockwood. Every building on the main campus will bear witness to Minnesota's reception to the old grads.

A detailed program of the two days will be published later, together with the names of those on other committees. With the organization well under way and with the hearty support of President Burton and Dean E. E. Nicholson, the committee expects an enthusiast in 1919 homecoming which Minnesota students and alumni are capable of.

Notice—College of Agriculture!

Beginning tomorrow the staff which has been organized on your campus will take up its headquarters in connection with the Y. M. C. A. students who are interested, and who desire to try out for the staff, should leave their names with Charles Howe before Saturday.

The deans and heads of the various departments are urged to cooperate with our office on your campus in every way possible.

"UNITED WE STAND—DIVIDED WE FALL."

Another school year is well on its way. The old traditions have supposedly been revived. No longer do the new students walk on the grass. The usual Sophomore-Freshmen "scraps" have been staged and each first year man wears his green cap and each first year girl her button.

We wish all this were true. The statement concerning the grass probably is, now that it is covered with snow.

The usual thing has happened. Each college has attempted to take care of its own freshmen. The College of Agriculture, the College of Dentistry, the School of Chemistry and the College of Engineering have each staged their separate contests and so it has been in years previous.

We hope that some day the upperclassmen will realize that each college is merely a small part of the whole, that we are all working toward the same end—a better and more unified university, and that that all first year students are FRESHMEN no matter what college they are in. When this realization does come we will have class officers for the whole university. The sophomores of all colleges will be organized for one purpose. We will have one huge "scrap". Every freshman will wear his cap, not just one here and there.

How much longer must we wait? We have many colleges. We have two campuses. BUT WE HAVE ONLY ONE UNIVERSITY.

UNFINISHED WORK.

Over in France on the battle front, back to the rest camps or at the port of embarkation, the Red Cross was a haven for the doughboys of Uncle Sam. They were given many necessities and comforts; amusement was provided them; a home-like atmosphere abounded in the Red Cross huts; careful treatment and nursing was given at the hospitals and dressing stations. All this required money—a great deal of it. The only way it could be provided was through subscription.

Now that actual hostilities have ceased, the Red Cross is applying itself to problems coming up during the reconstruction. There are still a few soldiers in the A. E. F. Still several army camps full of soldiers. And many hospitals full of convalescent men from the battlefields. The Red Cross is doing a great service at all these places, but needs funds and members to help carry on the work.

A nation wide drive, known as the Third Red Cross Roll Call, will begin November 3 and close Armistice Day, November 11. The object of the campaign is to enroll members and secure funds. Twenty million members is the goal set for the country, and the quota for the Southwestern Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Oklahoma, and Arkansas, is two million dollars.

Every man who served at home or abroad knows what the Red Cross has done, and has the greatest respect for "The Greatest Mother." They will gladly contribute the dollar membership fee. Those of us who were not in the service should give the Red Cross the same support. The university must not fail to do its share.—The Daily Kansan.

Demand of $50 a week for licensed pharmacists and $40 for first-class soda dispensers commit the general suspicion that soft-drink mixers are apprentice chemists.—Wall Street Journal.

Every time we gaze upon one of these shaved-eyebrow co-eds we feel as if they had just asked us "What?" in the most interrogative manner imaginable.—Ohio State Lantern.

"Live longer without liquor" says Dr. Mayor. Or does it merely seem longer?

CANADA.
When the Government declined last January to provide legislation which would assist returned soldiers in securing an education, the returned men of the University of Toronto, met and decided to organize in order that they might help along the movement. Consequently the Varsity Veterans' association was formed with the dual purpose of strengthening the social bonds of those who fought as comrades-in-arms in France and of promoting the interests of returned soldiers who wished to enter the university.

OKLAHOMA.
With practically the same team that held the beefy Minnesota Gophers to a 6-6 tie October 11, at Minneapolis, Nebraska will meet Bennie Owen's southern Sooners at Omaha Saturday, depending on straight line drives for victory. Although the Cornhuskers have a much bigger reserve of material than the Oklahomans, neither the line nor the backfield that probably will start the game is as heavy as in previous years. Average weight of the backfield is approximately 167 pounds, and the line will weigh in at only a little over 124 pounds, end to end.

Communication

This column is conducted for the benefit of readers desiring to present their views on all subjects of interest to the university. All communications must be signed as evidence of sincerity, but names will be withheld if desired. While the Daily does not hold itself responsible for the contents of its communications all such material must pass through the hands of the Managing Editor and should be so addressed.

Editor of the Daily:
In writing this communication I believe I am expressing the opinion of the mass of Minnesota rooters present at last Saturday's game. Possibly it is not necessary to preface my remarks by entitling it "Band followed by an interrogation point."

Before Minnesota's largest game, excepting that against Illinois, practically all the noise previous to the referee's whistle came from the Rooters club. The band appeared on the field sufficiently early, but immediately proceeded to put aside their instruments, and with hands in pockets became comfortable for the game. Not once before the Minnesota team ran from the armory did the expected "music makers" arouse themselves from their lethargy. I am told on good authority that when the eleven came running on the gridiron there was a hesitation on the leader's part to play, and if to play, what? Finally, "Minnesota, Hall To Thee" was started after the Rooters club was half way through with a big locomotive for the team. Having made a start, one expected the band would play "The Rouser", and buckle down to its task. Nebraska's band set an example for us, I believe, in supporting the team every minute of the fight. What followed might have been accomplished had the band walked off the field and returned to parade between halves. Even the leader could not realize that clashing of symbols, beating of drums or any sound whether music or noise, was in order when Minnesota made its touchdown. "He had received no orders except to play between halves," and was unwilling to assume the enormous responsibility of arousing the members to action. A pitiful excuse, you will agree, coming from a man leading the Minnesota band at a big football game. If the band doesn't evince enthusiasm, how can anyone else be rightfully expected to?

Now, to a casual onlooker, it appears that Minnesota possesses a concert band which we might justly be proud of if giving a concert in the armory. But as for a football band, it is worse than nothing. The rooters following the Gophers to Madison next Saturday will be chagrined if the band adopts the same passive attitude. If they proceed to keep their hands warm, I venture to say they will be more of a liability than an asset. Let us have then, a band or leader, who will cooperate with the rooters, follow the game closely, and show which team they represent.

A Rooter Club Member.

To the Editor of the Daily:
In the editorial column of yesterday our band was gloriously scored and the student body was highly appraised. One outstanding fact was evident at the game last Saturday and that was this, the students want their team to win and are willing to aid it by hearty applause or any other legitimate method. With the band chirping more like sixty crickets than a military band there was no incentive to take heart from this source.
But what I wanted to say is that there is a decided opportunity for improvement in the antics of the rooter king. In fact, the workout at the Iowa game has only served for the audience to cheer independently of the leader. It is still methodical to a certain extent due to good leadership of former years. However this somewhat systematic applause will cease in the efficiency it now possesses unless there is some attractive guidance to keep everyone on the same track.
My candid opinion of the routine last Saturday was that it was overworked and unorganized. In the second half especially there was an imperative need for the greatest support, when following the punting duel, the Hawkeyes advanced toward our goal post, but the stands were tired out and had lost confidence in their "Stevie," all to such an extent that the cheering was fretful and inadequate.

However, this nifty, dashing engineer should not be criticised too strongly, his assistant, nor his assistant's assistant of games to come, for the leadership of the second half was improved somewhat over that of the first half.
And, if Mr. Shannon is in a mood to consider a suggestion, I would ask him to organize his yells. The Rouser, Locomotive, or whatever it be should be mechanical and constant in a sense; that is, if people could not hear what yell was in progress, they could immediately recognize it thru the performance of the leader. For example, if the Locomotive were divided into three series of motions, those in the audience who were tardy in starting could quickly fall into line and by the time the final "Rah" was to be sounded everyone could join in it. Of course, this is a crude example due to the nature of the yell, but the principle could be well applied to other calls.
Standardize—that's the thing.

Take this notice home to your wife. The Minnesota Dames is an organization that aims to get the wives of married students acquainted with each other.

Please mail a card with your name and address to the secretary and we will be glad to call.

MINNESOTA DAMES.
Mrs. Haynes, president, 703 E. River-road, Minneapolis.
Mrs. Wallace, secretary, 610 13th avenue SE, Minneapolis.

The Minnesota Dames will meet October 30, at the home of Mrs. Mackell, 627 Oak street, SE.

The wives of married students are invited to this meeting.
Come out and get acquainted.

Triangle club meeting tonight, Alpha Delta Phi house, 8:30.

Students wishing to inspect the Minneapolis—Steel and Machinery Co. on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p. m., can do so by leaving their name with Mr. Cunningham at the Y. M. C. A. desk at the Minnesota Union.

JUNIORS!
Make your class picture appointments now. Soon it will be too late. The Gopher must go to press early this year. Hours 9 a. m. to 12 m. at the Gopher Hole.

Try-outs for the Aquatic League will be held in the natatorium of the women's gymnasium at 5 o'clock today. Any university woman may try out.

Contrary to the statement in yesterday's bulletin, the old members of the Aquatic League will meet in the W. A. room at 4:30 o'clock.

SUBSCRIBERS ATTENTION.
Balances on Daily subscriptions must be paid this week to avoid a penalty of 25 cents. No deductions may be made this year from the deposit fee.

FREE TICKETS.
Twenty-five men wanted to help decorate the armory Thursday and Friday afternoon of this week. Here's your chance to earn a ticket to the Daily dance Friday night. Communicate with Steve Shannon, P. O. 949.

Aviators To Meet

Constitution to Be Adopted—Prize Given for Suitable Name for Organization.

The second meeting of the Aviators' club will be held in room 209 of the Men's Union, at 12:30 today. A constitution will be decided upon and adopted at this meeting. A ride in one of the planes so often seen circling the campus is the prize offered to anyone presenting a suitable name for this organization. The Maroon and Gold Aviators, or The Gopher Aviators have already been proposed, but these names are not regarded as quite suitable. This contest is open to all. Every one interested is urged to communicate at once with box 1317 or box 652.

DAYTON—2nd Floor

LIFE'S HANDICAP

By Homely Hank.

Course, and I know it isn't right
To say things that aren't quite polite;
To criticize our campus band
May seem quite rude. But understand Perhaps no man is all to blame
But I will tell you just the same
The drum alone made all the noise
While all the trombone blowing boys
And groaners on the saxophone
Let forth a chilly, feeble moan.
We ought to have a harp or two
If we aspire our band to do
The pretty songs like 'Sweet and Low',
But if we want our band to go
To Madison all jazz and cheer,
We need a change or so I fear.

INFORMATION GATHERED.

Some one told me that Sigma Delta merely is a pledge pin. I doubt if that is the key to my problem. The Sigma Deltas are representatives of a local sorority at our worthy contemporary—that tower of lovely women—Stanley Hall.

SUNG IN PRAISE.

There's a Izzy A and Izzy B
*And rumor says there's an Izzy C.
Maybe each one of the alphabet
Is graced by an Izzy but I have met
Only the A—an Angel too
And all folks know what the B will do,
And the C is nice—the world should hear.
Really I think each Izzy dear.

THE REALISTS SAY:

That whatever we get out of life we pay for dearly. It therefore behooves the poorer of the men to acquire "cheap" wives. But let me warn you even if they are bargains don't let them know it. Call them dear anyway. Women like to be flattered and it's a harmless sport.

ADVERTISING MATTER.

Let the black cat meow
And the old red cow
Run away from the fearful ghost.
Let the old gate swing
On the steeples! Ring
All the bellab ut let me boast
That on Hallow eve
By a maiden's leave
I'll dance at the Daily ball
I will blow my horn
While I feel forlorn
Of the lure of childhood's call.
Of the pumpkin's face
And the thrilling race
Away from a bad deed done.
But the truth is plain
Though I wish in vain
I never can have that fun.

I'm taking up a collection of fur coat buttons cut from co-ed coats.
As they never use the two top buttons I am sure they will be glad to make offerings to my collections.
When complete, if successful, I intend to mount them for exhibition in the library lobby. Weaser (spelling uncensored) has contributed two buttons.

FASHION FLASHES.

Daring colors are popular this year.
The nicest people wear them. Have you seen the Brown girl with the Blue coat. It is a wonderful combination.

JUNIOR CLASS TO ELECT.

The class officers of the junior class of the College of Agriculture will be elected by open ballot this morning.
The election will be held in the upper hall of the Administration building.

Daily Announces Advertising Staff

Staff Composed of Upper Classmen Experienced in Advertising and Selling.

The advertising staff of the Minnesota Daily has been selected. From approximately 30 candidates, the following advertising salesmen were chosen: Platt M. Nellemore, K. W.
Kinney, W. M. Morris, Franklin
Christenson, Alin Buckley, Anthony Nelson, Arthur Alich, Richard Sullivan, Douglas H. Sheldon.

These men are for the greater part upperclassmen, who have had previous experience in either advertising or selling.

Robert Gile, advertising manager, urges that Minnesota students patronize firms which advertise in the Daily in preference to others, for it is only with their assistance that the publication is made possible.

Program of Year's Work Completed
By Home Economics Association.

The Home Economics association has completed its program and is ready for work. The girls are to be organized into three groups as follows:

1. Foods and nutrition.
2. Textiles and clothing.
3. Home and institutional management.

Each girl will be asked to give her twenty-five cents for membership, and also in what group she is most interested and would like to take part.

Each group is to have a meeting once a month and there will also be a monthly meeting of all the groups together, one group taking charge of the program each time.

VOCATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The Student Vocational Committee will hold a special meeting on Friday, at 4:30 in Miss Ball's office in Shevlin Hall. All members of the committee are urged to be present.

FORUMS TO HOLD MEETING

IN UNION THIS EVENING
The Forum Literary society will hold its fourth weekly meeting at the Minnesota Union.

The first part of the program will be devoted to a general discussion of some current question. The discussion will be led by Kenneth Riley. The rest of the program will consist of talks by Eugene Ackerson and Stanley Haljicks. Visitors, as well as, members, are welcome. The meeting will start at 8:00 o'clock.

A meeting of the Scabbard and Blade will be held in the armory at 7:15 to-night.

Dr. Coffee To Speak

Menorah Society Has Charge of Meeting at Little Theatre This Evening.

"Israel's contribution to democracy," will be the subject of the talk to be delivered by Dr. Rudolph I. Coffee at 8:00 o'clock tonight in the Little Theatre under the auspices of the Menorah society.

Since no notices of this meeting have been sent out, Aaron Harwit, president of the society, requests that Jewish students and all others interested advertise Dr. Coffee's talk as widely as possible.

home field, the first time for nearly a week. The coaches spent most of the time polishing up the signals for the coming battle.

During the scrimmage, that wound up the evening's grind, nearly every backfield man on the squad who has shown any ability this season was given a chance in the fray. The forwards remained practically unchanged with the exception of the outposts, who were frequently changed.

With the Rooters' Special, the train that is going to make the trip to Madison, assured, the students have given over the sale of the train tickets to railway authorities. Over 140 have already secured places on the train and requests for tickets are coming in at the rate of 10 a day. Tickets can now be purchased at the Consolidated ticket office located at Sixth street and Second avenue.
