DULUTH--Despite sub-zero temperatures, 30 persons registered for the non-credit course on Southeast Asia at the first session this week(Tuesday).

Academic Affairs Commissioner Charles Hoffman, Duluth, said additional spaces are available for students or the public at no charge.

At the next session at 7:00 p.m. Tuesday(Jan.22), Sung Chul Ji, UMD foreign exchange student from South Korea, will speak on "Political Relations Between Korea and Japan." Damrong Chau of Thailand will discuss "Cultural Behavior in Thailand."
