Students Named to Spring Semester Chancellor's List at U of M Crookston

By Krista Lemos, Elizabeth Tollefson on Thursday, May 31, 2007

CROOKSTON, Minn. (May 29, 2007) – Area Students named to the 2007 Spring Chancellor's List at the University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) were announced by the office of Records and Registration. The University of Minnesota, Crookston is a four-year baccalaureate degree granting institution, dedicated to learning, discovery, and engagement in northwest Minnesota.

To qualify for a place on the Chancellor's List, students must complete 12 or more letter-graded (A-F) credits while attaining a 4.00 grade point average. UMC is the only campus in the University of Minnesota system delivering undergraduate degrees via the Web and providing every full-time student with a notebook computer.

The University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) delivers more than 25 applied-science undergraduate degree programs and 50 concentrations, including online degrees, in agriculture; arts, humanities and social sciences; business; math, science and technology; and natural resources. UMC is dedicated to helping students and the region aim higher, reach further and dream bigger dreams. To learn more, visit www.UMCrookston.edu.
