Two special activities related to the UMD division of the humanities are underway.

The fall series of program readings, coordinated by Robert Hart, assistant professor of English, will begin with a program of Tennyson's poems at 4:15 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 16, in Tweed hall.

Open to the public as well as students, the series features members of the English department reading poetry of their choosing.

In the Duluth Playhouse vestibule during the current production, "The Reluctant Debutante," a one-man show by UMD art major William Jarvi, Hibbing, is on display. Jarvi is a junior.

The exhibition, including oils, water colors and prints, will conclude Saturday, Oct. 12.
