Soph Party Features Leap Year Idea With Coeds' Bid to Dance

Girls "cutting" and men in shirtsleeves will mark a hard-time leap year party to be sponsored by the sophomore class Friday evening in the gym, according to David Mehling, class president. Dancing, games, and refreshments will be the order of the evening.

Music by an orchestra will be furnished, to offset the cost of which those attending the party are asked to give 10 cents each to any member of the finance committee.

No guest tickets will be available, it was announced.

Committees include: Entertainment, Miss Genevieve Johnson, chairman, Lloyd Johnson, Miss June Niemi, and Noble Johnson; refreshments, Miss Nancy Finch, chairman, assisted by the Misses Kathleen Carney, Flora Mae Chipman, and Marjory Mead; finance, John Ryan, chairman, Ross McCollor, and Miss Ethel Erkkila; publicity, Kenneth Bartlett and Miss Eileen Abrahamson; clean-up, John Flynn in charge, assisted by Arthur Canary and Elof Larson.

Annual Chronicle Conducts Student Writing Contest

A writing contest in which all students in the College are invited to participate will be sponsored by the annual Chronicle, Charles N. Saltus, publications adviser, announced today.

April 3 has been set as the deadline for contributions, which may be entered in the poetry, essay, or short story divisions.

Manuscripts judged the best in each classification will be published in the year book.

NOTICE

The members of the cast are requested to leave their daily schedules in room 216 tomorrow.

Rehearsals will start Wednesday, March 25.

Play Production to Give 'Squaring The Circle' in Place of 'Cyrano'

Pine County School Head Will Address Rural Life Club Meet

A. E. Gustafson, superintendent of schools in Pine county, will address the Rural Life club March 26, it was announced recently by Miss Belle M. Deans, adviser.

Miss Genevieve Bowen of the rural department, will go to the Kalevala school near Kettle River today to be one of the judges for a dramatic contest to be held there. Miss Bowen and Miss Dorothy Smith, also of the rural department, will go to Lutsen tomorrow with the view of establishing a rural training school near there, and also in connection with the work of the present graduates.

At the last meeting of the Rural Life club, Miss Ina Williams was chosen president for the spring quarter. Ray Hovis was named vice president, and Miss Imelda Tyman, secretary-treasurer. O. W. Newstrom of Aitkin, who was to speak at that meeting, was unable to attend because of the impassability of the roads.

Former D.S.T.C. Students Attain High Scholarship

According to word received here, two D.S.T.C. alumni, now doing graduate work at Clark University, have received recognition for exceptional scholastic work.

Asbjorn Fause, '34 graduate, now a candidate for his masters' degree, has been granted a fellowship to continue study next year for his Ph. D. in geography. The fellowship is considered one of the major awards of the year, including tuition, room, and an additional stipend.

James Minogue '34, who is doing graduate work toward his Ph. D. degree, has been termed the ranking student of Clark, by members of the faculty.

Minogue expects to receive his master's degree in June, and Fause at the end of the summer session in August.

Miss Hilda Rose Stahl Names Tentative Cast for Russian Farce

Because an unforeseen situation has arisen to make impossible the presentation of "Cyrano de Bergerac," which had been chosen as the spring quarter play, "Squaring the Circle," a modern Russian farce, will be produced instead, Miss Hilda Rose Stahl, play production instructor, announced last week.

Cast Announced

The tentative cast for this play includes the following: Abram, Robert Thompson; Ludmilla, Gwynn Hatch; Vasya, John Tyllia; Tonya, Ruth Sargent; Rabinovitch, Robert Hamm; Emilian, Franklin Studley; Flavius Novikov, Alister McDonald; members of the League of Youth: Bassova, Mary Jane Sutherland; Nikonorov, Richard Greene; Martova, Arthur Canary; Stchepkina, Flora Mae Chipman; Vladikbusky, Kathleen Carney; Sonya, Betty Millar.

The Misses Ruth Ward and Eva Lehto will be student directors for the production. Robert Walczak will be bookholder. Members of the play production class will serve as production staff.

Play Is Translation

The play will be an adaption by Miss Stahl of the translation by Lyons and Malamuth from the original play written by Valentine Katayev.

The farce has been described as the "Abie's Irish Rose" of the new Russia. The acute shortage of housing under the present regime furnishes the basis for the plot.

The story is one of two boys and two girls, snared by love and political theory; and while it is filled with incidents that are said to make it one continuous laugh, it is not without its serious implications.

Since the Russian people are not encouraged to criticise overtly their government, criticism in Russia generally takes the form of humor expressed in the popular drama.

"Squaring the Circle" has been run-

HOOVER: A FASCIST?

Herbert Hoover, former president whose administration was marked by an ostrich-like head-in-the-sand attitude toward social legislation, admits that he is a potential fascist, according to recent newspaper reports.

It is reported that Mr. Hoover privately told a group of friends in Palo Alto that when he thought of economic systems, he stopped thinking after he reached capitalism, for beyond that he could see only communism or fascism. Then he added, "Personally, I prefer fascism."

While we may not agree with Mr. Hoover that we are to be placed between a possible devil and a certain deep blue sea; that our American democracy will not stand the test of time; that government by the people must succumb to dictatorship, we nevertheless regret Mr. Hoover's choice.

That fascism, engendered of lies and ignorance, seizing power by force, supported by false nationalistic patriotism and racial and group prejudice, and dependent upon war and the suppression of workers for its very existence, is to be preferred as a system of government for the American people does not seem intelligent.

But Mr. Hoover prefers it.
We don't.

YOUR EYES

I gaze with delight at your half-closed eyes,
Eyes so voluptuous, lazy;
Their languid glance seems to hypnotize;
My senses are growing quite hazy.

You look up just then, and your eyes opened wide—

Did you start at the crackling fire?
You look like a babe three years old
Easteride

Whose innocent stare I admire.

You settled again, and you look up at me
The very demurest of sages;
And when I look into your eyes I can see
A hint of the wisdom of ages.

The depth of your eyes says you must have a soul,

But I doubt its existence at that;
Though you crept to my arms, my caresses you stole,
After all — you are only a cat.

—M. E. B.

THE COLYUM

By Ann Nonymous

—Jerry Murphy has been in every state in the union except West Virginia. And he also has dated Harriet Hilliard.

—We don't know whether Knoble Johnson is an ordained minister or not, but he certainly goes by the name of Reverend.

—Our nomination for the best player on the basketball team is Barle.

—Andy Hoiem seems to be carrying the torch for Betty Claffy.

Capitalist

—"Senator" Johnson never capitalizes a capitol, because he's afraid he'll be taken for a capitalist.

—We wish to announce that we were misinformed as to Al Lange's attending South Dakota "U," because he didn't.

—Miss Stahl sustained a severe blow to her plans when she had to give up "Cyrano." And we are really sorry, because it would have been a good show.

Favorite Song

—Favorite song of the week is: "I'm Putting All My Eggs in One Basket."

—Just like old times, Morgan Sweeney and Buzz Gammon are back in school. All we miss of the old trio is Mervin Specht.

—Marybeth Scott and Char Kelly vacationed at Esquagama during our between-quarter holiday.

—One of the most loyal supporters both our football and basketball teams is Dr. Bohannon.

Roy Slicks Up

—In case anyone wants to know why Roy Moren's hair was slicked down at Friday's game in such an improved manner, his girl was down from Two Harbors.

—Not only is he intelligent, but good-looking too, this Colin Brown—however, dad-burn it, he already has a girl in Minneapolis, his home town.

—Optimism: Junior girl to "Pete": "Gee, I'm sorry we lost, but at least I'll be here to see Teachers take the next Olympics."

Chuck Leaves

—We certainly are sorry to lose Chuck Bates, but I guess he's "going places" in baseball.

—Why is it so many girls are getting their cups read? Maybe because one girl wished for a date with a certain T. C. stude and got it the next night.

—"Jake" Sweeney spent the past month in Miami, Florida, and points south.

—I guess the "Irish" have it this week.

Miss Harrison Will Discuss Social Customs

The W. A. A. will hold an open meeting tomorrow in room 109 at 12 o'clock. Miss Harriet Harrison, dean of women, will speak on specific questions that have been raised by the women in regard to social customs.

All women in college here are invited to attend this meeting. If any women have any questions that they would like to ask on this subject, they are urged to bring them to this meeting.

PRIVATE LIVES

By Jessy Taylor

THE BULLDOG

By HEARUM TELLUM & PEEP

Although the Ascensions hold the honor of being the only team to halt the victory drive of the Bulldogs, we still maintain that Duluth State is the tops. Three championships and nineteen straight games out of twenty-one in one season is plenty good enough for us.

* * *

One wag remarked that Francis Gorham was just the man to pit against the Globe Trotters. Said he, "How should the Trotters know what he would do next when he didn't know himself?"

Mebbe so, mebbe so.

* * *

Then there was the young lady who got tongue-tied after the Ascension game and said, "I'm going out and down my sour." (Mmmmm!)

* * *

We understand that "Toots" is having quite a romance with a certain little newsboy, who delivers on the campus.

* * *

Several women athletes informed one of our stooges that "W.A.A." means, "Women Are Angelic." We prefer to interpret it thusly, "Wildly Amorous Ame-days."

* * *

Gabe comes out of his lethargy in Detroit long enough to pass this sage morsel along to us. "Nature emphasizes the unimportance of flesh by making very few great men look great." (Perchance this applies to many of our blushing violets which may be plucked in the campus garden of Punctured Dreams.)

* * *

Sign of spring: John Noble Johnson (please note the JOHN) seems to be turning to Greene.

* * *

We extend both congratulations and regrets to "Rooter Queen" Jan: congratulations for the excellent spirit she has exhibited at all Bulldog games. For four years this pretty pepper-box of effervescence has led the crowds in cheering the State teams, win, lose, or draw. We extend regrets that Friday night's game was the last opportunity for us to see this bonnie lass in action for old State. We sincerely hope that Janet Falconer can break in a capable successor before she leaves our campus.

We have come to the conclusion that Brother Clifton is worried about that knot on the end of his spine. He must be worried about its unraveling because he averages about two trips per week to the chiropractors.

David Mehling to Talk on Germany's Position

Miss Marion Tidball Will Also Speak at Discussion Club Today.

At the meeting of the Discussion club this afternoon, David Mehling, president of the club, will speak on Germany's position in Europe today. Miss Marion Tidball will discuss the revolution in Japan.

Miss Eithel Gregory has been named lunch chairman of the Discussion club for the spring quarter. Philip G. Auchampaugh, history instructor, will be the adviser during the present month.

The meetings of the club are open to the student body. All those interested in discussion of current problems are urged to attend.

Dancing Features Women's Spring Program of Sports

Dancing in its various forms heads the list of activities offered in physical education classes for women this quarter, according to Miss Elizabeth Graybeal, instructor. Folk, national, and interpretive dancing are among the types featured.

Golf, tennis, baseball, archery, and track are the main sports on the list of activities. A class in life-saving is scheduled for Thursday afternoons at the Y.W.C.A. pool.

The daily program for women's physical education classes is as follows:

Monday: golf, dancing, baseball, Orchestis; Tuesday: recreational games, tennis, dancing; Wednesday: recreational games, dancing, baseball, track; Thursday: archery, tennis, dancing, life saving; and Friday: golf, dancing, fundamentals of sport, and archery.

Bluejays Cede City Title to Mighty Bulldogs, 53-21

The Duluth J. C. Bluejays were no match at all for the Bulldogs, who gained the city title by defeating the Bluejays Feb. 28 by a score of 53-21.

It was a complete rout of the Jays from the opening basket to the final shot of the pistol. The score was 11-1 at the end of the first quarter, and was stretched to 22-7 at half-time.

State kept up a relentless attack in the third canto, running the score to 40-12. With the subs being issued freely by Coach Peterson, the game finally wound up 53-21. Moren, Tesar, and Barle scored 14, 11, and 8 points respectively.

Duluth Yields in Tense Contest to Second Defeat by Ascensions

Bulldogs Lose Thrilling Bout at Amph by One-Point Margin.

By Neil Scott

For the second time in two weeks, the Ascension club cagers of Minneapolis defeated the otherwise undefeated Bulldogs at the Amph last Friday. The Bulldogs put up a gallant and determined battle, but fell before the Minneapolis A.A.U. runners-up by a 36-35 score.

The game was fast and hard-fought throughout, with the down-staters squeaking out a one-point win in the last ten seconds of a hectic, thrill-packed setto.

The Bulldogs led at the end of the first quarter 11-5, but the Minneapolis men took the lead at half-time 16-14, due to a beautiful push-shot by Sullivan.

The Ascensions built their lead to 27-22 at the end of the third canto, mainly through the efforts of Carpenter and Sullivan. The final period was one of the most exciting seen on the "Amph" floor this season. State pulled up to within one point of the visitors, but the gun barked, giving the Ascensions their second straight win over Duluth.

The Ascensions eliminated Duluth State in the A.A.U. meet held in Minneapolis two weeks ago by a score of 34-26. This was the first loss of the season for the Bulldogs.

The scoring in Friday night's game was very close. Each team dropped in 16 field buckets. The margin of victory was provided via the free-throw line, with the Ascensions tallying four to State's three.

The outstanding all-round play of Louis Barle was a feature of the game. This lad deserves far more credit than he has received all season. He has been the mainstay and standout player of every game. "Fats," besides playing his usual brilliant defensive game, was the leading scorer of the evening, making six field goals and one gift toss for a total of 13 markers.

COACH KOVACH TO ISSUE CALL FOR TRACK MEN SOON

Frank Kovach, track coach, will issue a call for track candidates within the next few days. Everyone who has an idea or desire to don a sweat-suit and give the cinders a thorough mashing is urged to do so.

Coach Kovach desires a large squad, so come on, "youse guys," get out and limber up.

The gym is available for anyone who desires to get a little conditioning in ahead of the others.

Bulldogs Drub Harlem Globe-Trotters As 2000 Fans See Game

The Harlem Globe Trotters met their fourth defeat in 82 games this season at the hands of the Bulldogs, who maintained their undefeated standing in conference and non-conference games, by trouncing the professionals 42-30. The game was played Mar. 4 at the Amphitheatre before a crowd of between two and three thousand fans.

The Harlemites were unable to put on their usual act, and left the floor a badly beaten and sorely fagged team. The Bulldogs took the play away from them, and forced the issue at all times. By so doing, they did not permit the Trotters to get set.

The boys clearly demonstrated their skill and intrepidity in this test. Scoring was fairly evenly divided among the regulars.

The colorful game proved to a great extent our original contention that our team is just as good as if not better than, any team in this state or several states close by. This was plain to be seen when one realizes that the Harlem Globe Trotters have met many of the outstanding college teams (as well as amateur and professional aggregations) in the country, and defeated them all.

Duluth Takes First A.A.U. Opponents in Minneapolis

Duluth State's first opponent in the Minneapolis A.A.U. meet Mar. 5 was the Hancock, Mich., team, whom they defeated by a score of 40-23.

The game was played after the boys had beaten the Globe Trotters the night before in a hard struggle, had taken examinations that morning, had been summoned from them at ten minutes to twelve, hurried down town to eat, get their A.A.U. cards, and catch a bus for Minneapolis at one o'clock.

They arrived at the gymnasium in Minneapolis ten minutes before game time, rushed into their uniforms, and then out on to the floor.

Our champs were slow for a time, but soon hit their stride and threw up a formidable lead that was never in danger until the final gun. "Ichabod" Turk led the team in scoring, bagging 10 points. Moren was also a high scorer. The boys played their usual sparkling ball.

Social tact is making your company feel at home, even though you wish they were.—Augsberg Echo.

As We Think Things Over

by NEIL SCOTT

Now that the Bulldogs have tucked the conference, Twin Ports, and city college titles away in the trophy case, and packed their basketball uniforms in mothballs, we find ourselves facing a comparatively light sports calendar.

* * *

However, we can make this quarter one of the most lively sports periods of the year. If enough interest is shown, a wide range of athletic activities are available to us during the spring. Among some of the more outstanding sports besides track are tennis, golf, baseball, diamondball, and horseshoe.

* * *

Walter Nosek at present holds the conference tennis championship. There is a wealth of tennis material at hand, and we see no reason why Duluth State should not go far towards annexing both the men's and women's titles in both the singles and double this year.

* * *

Let's all get together and take part in some form of intramural and intercollegiate sport activity this spring. We want to hear from you students concerning this subject. Leave your name and that of the sport you are interested in with the Fortnightly Chronicle Sports department.

* * *

The Duluth State "B" team, or Bulldogs, have established an enviable record for themselves this season, losing only one game out of ten. The Puppies have been coached by Heino Mattson, former court star for Duluth, and assistant to Coach Peterson.

* * *

The record made by the Mattson-men is especially laudable since all but two of them are freshmen. We can see where "Pete" will have some very good replacements next season if this crop of baby Bulldogs comes through. There is no reason why they shouldn't, after they smooth off a few of the rough edges that are still apparent. Congratulations, Heino and your "B" team.

"What's your idea of civilization?" the Prince of Wales was asked.

"It's a good idea," replied the Prince. "Somebody ought to start it."
